1860-69 Edward Whymper, 1871 Scrambles Amongst The Alps In The Years 1860-69 Edward Whymper, 2013-04-18 The ascent of Mont Pelvoux including the disagreeables was a very delightful scramble The mountain air did not act as an emetic the sky did not look black instead of blue nor did I feel tempted to throw myself over precipices I hastened to enlarge my experience and went to the Matterhorn I was urged towards Mont Pelvoux by those mysterious impulses which cause men to peer into the unknown Not only was this mountain reputed to be the highest in France and on that account was worthy of attention but it was the dominating point of a most picturesque district of the highest interest which to this day remains almost unexplored The Matterhorn attracted me simply by its grandeur It was considered to be the most thoroughly inaccessible of all mountains even by those who ought to have known better Stimulated to make fresh exertions by one repulse after another I returned year after year as I had opportunity more and more determined to find a way up it or to prove it to be really inaccessible
