The Killing Tree:

The Killing Tree Jay Bennett, 1979 The Killing Tree Rachel Keener, 2009-03-18 It's the summer after Mercy Heron graduates from high school and she's living in the household of her domineering grandfather and a grandmother whose behavior has always been erratic some folks even call it crazy They've raised Mercy since her mother died giving birth to her under the June apple tree after Father Heron locked her out and ignored her pleas for help Mercy's days are spent working at the local diner and hanging out with her wild best friend Della Unlike Della she's never seriously considered leaving the insulated community on Crooked Top mountain Not until that summer when she meets Trout a man who opens Mercy's eyes to a world beyond what she's known both physically and emotionally Their relationship must be kept secret because Father Heron won't approve of his granddaughter being involved with a migrant worker But when Mercy tries to escape she'll learn just how powerful and ruthless her grandfather can be And the truth of her past will threaten to forever bind her to the mountain

The Killing Tree J. D. Smith, Refugee Lifeworlds Y-Dang Troeung, 2022-08-29 Utilizing the concept of aphasia this book demonstrates how Cambodian refugee narratives resist state violence and take head on hegemonic discourses across popular and scholarly spaces that prop up colonial imperial capitalist heteropatriarchal and ableist formations of the Cold War in Cambodia Landbridge Y-Dang Troeung, 2024-10-11 In 1980 Y Dang Troeung and her family were among the last of the 60 000 refugees from Cambodia that Canada agreed to admit Their landing was widely documented in newspapers with photographs of the prime minister shaking Troeung's father's hand and patting baby Y Dang's head Troeung became a literal poster child for the benevolence of the Canadian refugee project She returns to this moment forty years later in her arresting memoir Landbridge where she explores the tension between that public narrative of happy arrival and the multiple often hidden truths of what happened to her family In precise beautiful prose Troeung moves back and forth in time to tell stories about her parents and two brothers who lived through the Cambodian genocide about the lives of her grandparents and extended family about her own childhood in the refugee camps and in rural Ontario and eventually about her young son's illness and her own diagnosis with a terminal disease Throughout this brilliant and astonishing book Troeung looks with bracing clarity at refugee existence and dares to imagine a better future with love

Redeeming Power Diane Langberg, 2020-10-20 Power has a God-given role in human relationships and institutions but it can lead to abuse when used in unhealthy ways Speaking into current MeToo and ChurchToo conversations this book shows that the body of Christ desperately needs to understand the forms power takes how it is abused and how to respond to abuses of power Although many Christians want to prevent abuse in their churches and organizations they lack a deep and clear-eyed understanding of how power actually works Internationally recognized psychologist Diane Langberg offers a clinical and theological framework for understanding how power operates the effects of the abuse of power and how power can be redeemed and restored to its proper God-given place in relationships and institutions This book not only helps

Christian leaders identify and resist abusive systems but also shows how they can use power to protect the vulnerable in their midst

Running on Empty Gregory S. Hudson, 2023-10-13 As the Lucas Twins serial killers secretly terrorize the lives of nearly 100 victims there are two victims that escaped One escaped certain death in 1979 and another escaped 40 years later Fate brings the two together as they realize their lives have been mentally and psychology ruined by the same people They embark on a journey to find their tormentors only to have many other secrets revealed The world of a supernatural being is discovered along with a bizarre ritual that keeps the twins hungry for more victims even as they reach their 70s Revenge is best served cold 40 years is definitely cold enough Now is the time for justice to be served

The Argonauts Maggie Nelson, 2015-05-05 An intrepid voyage out to the frontiers of the latest thinking about love language and family Maggie Nelson's The Argonauts is a genre bending memoir a work of autotheory offering fresh fierce and timely thinking about desire identity and the limitations and possibilities of love and language It binds an account of Nelson's relationship with her partner and a journey to and through a pregnancy to a rigorous exploration of sexuality gender and family An insistence on radical individual freedom and the value of caretaking becomes the rallying cry for this thoughtful unabashed uncompromising book

The Magic Tree Ursula Rani Sarma, 2008-08-05 Which comes first loneliness or violence This is the story of love born in a very dark place between a man who wants to belong and a woman who wants to be forgotten On a stormy night they shelter in an abandoned summer home and tentatively discover what it is that they have in common But just when it seems something beautiful might emerge the opposite appears The Magic Tree is an exploration into human behaviour at a time when humanity seems determined to endlessly repeat the mistakes of the past It looks at why good people are capable of doing bad things and asks if love alone can save us The Magic Tree opened at the The Assembly Rooms Edinburgh in August 2008

Violence and the Civilising Process in Cambodia Roderic Broadhurst, Thierry Bouhours, Brigitte Bouhours, 2015-11-13 Surveys violence in Cambodia from the nineteenth century to the present testing the theories of Norbert Elias in a non Western context

Wise Trees Diane Cook, Len Jenshel, 2017-10-17 Leading landscape photographers Diane Cook and Len Jenshel present Wise Trees a stunning photography book containing more than 50 historical trees with remarkable stories from around the world Supported by grants from the Expedition Council of the National Geographic Society Cook and Jenshel spent two years traveling to fifty nine sites across five continents to photograph some of the world's most historic and inspirational trees Trees they tell us can live without us but we cannot live without them Not only do trees provide us with the oxygen we breathe food gathered from their branches and wood for both fuel and shelter but they have been essential to the spiritual and cultural life of civilizations around the world From Luna the Coastal Redwood in California that became an international symbol when activist Julia Butterfly Hill sat for 738 days on a platform nestled in its branches to save it from logging to the Bodhi Tree the sacred fig in India that is a direct descendent of the tree under which Buddha attained enlightenment Cook and Jenshel reveal trees that have impacted and shaped our lives

our traditions and our feelings about nature There are also survivor trees including a camphor tree in Nagasaki that endured the atomic bomb an American elm in Oklahoma City and the 9 11 Survivor Tree a Callery pear at the 9 11 Memorial All of the trees were carefully selected for their role in human dramas This project both reflects and inspires awareness of the enduring role of trees in nurturing and sheltering humanity Photographers environmentalists history buffs and nature lovers alike will appreciate the extraordinary stories found within the pages of Wise Trees Dark Tourism and Crime Derek Dalton,2014-11-20 Dark tourism has become widespread and diverse It has passed into popular culture vernacular deployed in guide books as a short hand descriptor for sites that are associated with death suffering and trauma However whilst books have been devoted to dark tourism as a general topic no single text has sought to explore dark tourism in spaces where crime mass murder genocide State sanctioned torture and violence has occurred as an organising theme Dark Tourism and Crime explores the socio cultural contours of this unique type of tourism and explains why spaces places where crime has occurred fascinate and attract tourists The book is marked by an ethics of respect for the suffering a place has experienced and an imperative to learn something tangible about the history and legacy of that suffering Based on empirical ethnographic research it takes the reader from the remnants of Auschwitz concentration camp to the tranquil Australian island of Tasmania to explore precisely what things a dark tourist might encounter architecture art installations gardens memorials physical traces of crime and how these things invoke and evoke past crimes This volume furthers understanding of dark tourism and will be of interest to students researchers and academics of criminology tourism and cultural studies Write Moves Nancy Pagh,2016-08-04 Write Moves is an invitation for the student to understand and experience creative writing in the larger frame of humanities education The practical instruction offered comes in the form of moves or tactics for the apprentice writer to try But the title also speaks to a core value of this project that creative writing exists to move us The book focuses on concise human voiced instruction in poetry the short story and the short creative nonfiction essay Emphasis on short forms allows the beginning student to appreciate lessons in craft without being overwhelmed by lengthy model texts diverse examples of these genres are offered in the anthology Digger's Moon John Heird,2003-10 Digger's Moon is a dramatic gritty and realistic look at life and death in the Indian Territory Set in Fort Smith Arkansas where Federal Judge Isaac C Parker and his 200 U S Deputy Marshals struggled to bring justice to the chaos of the Western frontier Digger's Moon recalls life in a place often called Hell on the Border It was a place where life was cheap and living was hard Violence convulsed everyday life and revenge was the law of the land Digger's Moon is the story of brutality born of lawlessness and Parker's hard fought brand of justice a captivating tale of precarious friendships and redemptive love Painstakingly researched for historical accuracy and masterfully written in the tradition of old fashioned campfire story telling Digger's Moon will sweep you into the adventures of unforgettable characters page after page And when you're finished the last page this story will stay with you from first light to twilight through the light of a digger's moon until you pick it back up and fall

Apologetics Paul Chamberlain,Chris Price,2020-05-06 Objections to the Christian faith are not new The ability to boldly proclaim the old faith to a post Christian culture is In an era where access to objections and arguments is easier than ever everyday Christians need to be prepared with strong clear responses In Everyday Apologetics readers will be equipped with answers to some of Christianity s most difficult objections Why is the God of the Old Testament so violent Are science and faith in fundamental conflict with one another The contributors take up these questions and more helping Christians be strengthened in their faith while also providing powerful answers to opponents of the Christian faith With a clear inviting winsome style Everyday Apologetics is for everyone Christians skeptics seekers and everyone in between Botanica

Delira Chad Arment,2010 As a companion anthology to Flora Curiosa Botanica Delira collects 21 short stories of botanical wonders and horrors strange plants that delight and sometimes kill These imaginative flowers and trees and even one cactus are a literary outgrowth of newspaper wonder stories that purported to describe rare natural marvels To illustrate this nature fakery ten brief newspaper and magazine stories are included showing the variety of early botanical literary hoaxes from man eating plants to electric trees Interludes Neil Davies,2012-05-22 11 more stories of dark imagination

Gender and Genocide in Cambodia Azra Rashid,2023-10-31 This book explores the multiplicity of women s experiences in the Cambodian genocide during the four year rule of the Khmer Rouge The dominant discourses of genocide often speak from a patriarchal and national perspective rendering women speechless and yet in this volume the female survivors of the Cambodian genocide testify not only to the specific atrocities committed during the war but also to the pre war conditions that laid the groundwork for a gender specific victimization of women and its continuation post war With the help of testimonies from Khmer women who joined the Khmer Rouge women who experienced sexual violence during the Khmer Rouge era women who fled the country and the Cham women who faced expulsion from home this book explores the diversity of women s experiences under the Khmer Rouge Survivors accounts show that a Khmer woman s experience with the Khmer Rouge was considerably different from the experience of not only a Khmer man but also a woman from a religious or ethnic minority group or a woman who chose to join the Khmer Rouge These differences are conveniently ignored in nationalist discourses in Cambodia and by western scholars of history and gender based violence and they are given even less consideration in discourses about women survivors in diaspora Instead of forcing generalization and universalization of gendered crimes of war Gender and Genocide in Cambodia employs feminist curiosity and closely examines women s experiences under the Khmer Rouge from multiple vantage points This volume is essential reading for students and scholars interested in gender and cultural studies political history and modern history

Tall Tales at the General Store Mary Greene Lee, 2012-09-20 Enjoy the bygone days of a time precariously nestled between the comforts of peace and the ever present threat of impending war in 1939 Meander the dirt roads converging at the general store where tall tales flow freely A young parson from the Northeast arrives and receives an education from the mountaineers far beyond his preacher schooling The unsolicited courtin assistance pushes his patience to the limits Laugh with six brothers as they unconventionally live balancing compassion with tomfoolery gaiety with grief all while holding fast to a simple yet steadfast faith A new resident arrives not fitting the mold of a Greenbed woman she clings to high fashion and longs for the social life she enjoyed in the big city Her actions and attitudes alienate the residents from her husbands struggling store until she is forced to put her life into the hands of the most unlikely character in the mountain The war touched the mountain community in a shocking manner theyd never imagined possible
