J. Jennings, 2013-06-27 This book examines five different types of evidence in the published afterlife material and offers a set of rigorous criteria for each type that hopefully is sufficient to qualify the evidence as either credible or not credible Finally the book proposes the scientific collection and qualification of even more credible evidence of many types in an attempt to establish what the afterlife is and is not The Case for an Afterlife by J J Jennings is a must read for believers skeptics and everyone in between Afterlife Review Kafka Translated Michelle Woods, 2013-11-07 Kafka

Translated is the first book to look at the issue of translation and Kafka's work. What effect do the translations have on how we read Kafka? Are our interpretations of Kafka influenced by the translators' interpretations? In what ways has Kafka been translated into Anglo-American culture by popular culture and by academics? Michelle Woods investigates issues central to the burgeoning field of translation studies: the notion of cultural untranslatability, the centrality of female translators in literary history and the underrepresentation of the influence of the translator as interpreter of literary texts. She specifically focuses on the role of two of Kafka's first translators, Milena Jesenská and Willa Muir, as well as two contemporary translators, Mark Harman and Michael Hofmann, and how their work might allow us to reassess reading Kafka. From here, Woods opens up the whole process of translation and re-examines accepted and prevailing interpretations of Kafka's work.

Mujong (The Heartless) Kwang-su Yi, 2010-03-31 Yi Kwang-su 1892-1950 was one of the pioneers of modern Korean literature. When the serialization of Mujong The Heartless began in 1917, it was an immediate sensation and it occupies a prominent place in the Korean literary canon. The Heartless is the story of a love triangle among three youths during the Japanese occupation. Yi Hyung-sik is a young man in his mid-twenties who is teaching English at a middle school in Seoul. Brilliant but also shy and indecisive, he is torn between two women. Kim Sun-hyung is from a wealthy Christian family; she has just graduated from a modern Western-style school and is planning on continuing her studies in the United States. Pak Yung-chae is a musically gifted young woman who was raised in a traditional Confucian manner; due to family misfortune, she has become a kisaeng but remains devoted to Hyung-sik, whom she knew as a child. The Heartless goes beyond the level of romantic melodrama and uses these characters to depict Korea's struggles with modern culture and national identity. A long critical introduction discusses Yi Kwang-su's life and work from his birth in 1892 to the publication of his first novel, The Heartless, in 1917. It contains in-depth analyses of the novel, Yi Kwang-su's literary theory, and early short stories.
