The Landscape Of Man A Studio:

Studio International ,1899 The Studio ,1899 Studio ,1896 Pietro Porcinai and the Landscape of Modern Italy

Marc Treib, Luigi Latini, 2017-05-15 Born in Florence in 1910 Pietro Porcinai grew up on the classic grounds of the Villa Gamberaia in Settignano where his father served as head gardener Although he studied agriculture in college Porcinai's true interest lay in the landscape architecture practice he founded in 1938 Early projects centered in the area of Arezzo whose style reflected modernized traditional models In the postwar era the office flourished producing modern gardens of remarkable design and use of plants In these works Porcinai convincingly demonstrated the affinity between historical architecture and landscapes uncompromisingly modern During his long and productive career he also consulted on autostrada planning and designed public parks memorials and even a Pinocchio theme park at times collaborating with noted architects such as Renzo Piano Carlo Scarpa and Oscar Niemeyer This book the first English language study on Pietro Porcinai provides a comprehensive and richly illustrated overview of his life and remarkable achievements The

Ray Stanford Strong, West Coast Landscape Artist Mark Humpal, 2017-12-14 Throughout his long and prolific career Ray Stanford Strong 1905-2006 strove to capture the essence of the western American landscape An accomplished painter who achieved national fame during the New Deal era Strong is best known for his depiction of landscapes in California and Oregon rendered in his signature plein air style This beautiful volume featuring more than 100 color and black and white illustrations is the first comprehensive exploration of Strong's life and artistry Through family papers archives photographs and a two year series of interviews conducted with the artist personally Mark Humpal traces Strong's journey from his childhood on an Oregon berry farm to his artistically formative years in New York and San Francisco After moving back to the West Coast Strong produced important works for the WPA executed major diorama projects for two world expositions helped organize the Santa Barbara Art Institute and served as teacher and mentor for a new generation of plein air artists But as Humpal emphasizes Strong distinguished himself by resisting the drumbeat of the avant garde During an era when many artists were experimenting with abstract expressionism Strong never relinquished his personal vision and adherence to a more traditional style With his outgoing personality he forged friendships and associations with such prominent artists as Frank Vincent DuMond Maynard Dixon Ansel Adams Frank Lloyd Wright and John Steinbeck Ultimately Strong had little concern for his place in the sweep of art history The proficiency he achieved through years of formal and informal study allowed him to craft a personal style difficult to categorize but unique and engaging By expanding our understanding and appreciation of Strong's artistic contributions this book offers a fitting tribute to one of America's finest landscape artists

The French Mind On The Landscape Germán T. Cruz, 2012-09-13 Germán T Cruz is a landscape architect by profession and vocation with a wide path of practical engagement in urban and residential design across the USA and several countries

Herbert, 2015-11-16 Analyzing ten paintings by Courbet Manet C zanne Monet Seurat and Picasso exposes vital relationships between intension and habit the singular and the complex In doing so it uncovers a space worthy of historical and aesthetic analysis between the brushstroke and the self

Impressionism and the Modern Landscape James H. Rubin, 2008-04-03 The examples convey not only these major themes but also the painters belief in the progress of civilization through science and industry The book thus expands the scope of Impressionist celebrations of modernity to include what might be called Impressionism s other landscape and proposes that in the Impressionists effort to forge a modern landscape art those signs of modernity defined their vision most clearly BOOK JACKET The International Interpreter , 1922 Notes on the Landscape of Home Susan Hand

Shetterly, 2022-09-01 If you pay attention to the land where you live you enter into conversation with it until it becomes a voice inside you and some of the boundaries between you and it dissolve write Susan Hand Shetterly In this collection of elegant spare and often passionate essays Shetterly explores what it is to live in a Down East coastal town and to pay attention over time to what it offers of land water wildlife and community She takes her cue from Henry David Thoreau and Wendell Berry who advocate for the virtues of staying in one place believing that as we delve deeper into the landscape of home the more we learn about the world As in many other places this particular home place is in trouble Shetterly celebrates the work of communities to restore environments their people know and love and takes a closeup look at what is changing and what has been lost Among her subjects are the reestablishment of the bald eagle the reintroduction of the American turkey in Maine and the turkey vulture s northward trend She also writes about shorebird migrations the bluefin tuna and the humpback and right whales in the Gulf of Maine counting alewives along a stream in the spring seaweed cultivation in a bay a forest s rebirth the island that gave her the imaginative space she needed and more She recounts how she and her neighbors kept each other company at a distance during the long months of the pandemic and she celebrates coastal culture its particular deep history that anchors a person s sense of place The International Interpreter Frederick Dixon, 1924

The Landscape of Contemporary Cinema Leon Lewis, William David Sherman, 1967 The Crayon , 1855 The Landscape of Stalinism Evgeny Dobrenko, Eric Naiman, 2011-11-15 This wide ranging cultural history explores the expression of Bolshevik Party ideology through the lens of landscape or more broadly space Portrayed in visual images and words the landscape played a vital role in expressing and promoting ideology in the former Soviet Union during the Stalin years especially in the 1930s At the time the iconoclasm of the immediate postrevolutionary years had given way to nation building and a conscious attempt to create a new Soviet culture In painting architecture literature cinema and song images of landscape were enlisted to help mold the masses into joyful hardworking citizens of a state with a radiant utopian future all under the fatherly guidance of Joseph Stalin From backgrounds in history art history literary studies and philosophy the contributors show how Soviet space was sanctified coded and sold as an ideological product They explore the ways in which producers of various art forms used space to express what Katerina Clark calls a cartography of power an organization of the entire country into a hierarchy of spheres of relative sacredness with Moscow at the center The theme of center versus periphery figures prominently in many of the essays and the periphery is shown often to be paradoxically central Examining representations of space in objects as diverse as postage stamps a hikers magazine advertisements and the Soviet musical the authors show how cultural producers attempted to naturalize ideological space to make it an unquestioned part of the worldview Whether focusing on the new or the centuries old whether exploring a built cityscape a film documentary or the painting Stalin and Voroshilov in the Kremlin the authors offer a consistently fascinating journey through the landscape of the Soviet ideological imagination Not all features of Soviet space were entirely novel and several of the essayists assert continuities with the prerevolutionary past One example is the importance of the mother image in mass songs of the Stalin period another is the boundless longing inspired in the Russian character by the burden of living amid vast empty spaces But whether focusing on the new or the centuries old whether exploring a built cityscape a film documentary or the painting Stalin and Voroshilov in the Kremlin the authors offer a consistently fascinating journey through the landscape of the Soviet ideological imagination Morrison's Stranger's Guide to the City of Washington and Its Vicinity ... ,1844 A Catalogue Raisonné of the Works of the Most Eminent Dutch Painters of the Seventeenth Century Cornelis Hofstede de Groot,1907

A catalogue raisonné of the works of the most eminent Dutch painters of the seventeenth century C. Hofstede de Groot, A catalogue raisonné of the works of the most eminent Dutch painters of the seventeenth century based on the work of John Smith Translated and edited by Edward G Hawke Volume 1 Landscape Biographies Rita Hermans,Jan Kolen,Hans Renes,2025-10-01 Landscape Biographies explores the long and complex histories of landscapes from personal and social perspectives As an essential part of human life worlds landscapes have the potential to absorb something of people s lives works and thoughts But landscapes also shape their own life histories at different timescales transcending human life cycles and generating their own temporalities and rhythms It comes as no surprise therefore that the co scripting of landscapes and people figures prominently in the auto biographical works of writers and attracts the interest of geographers archaeologists historians and anthropologists This has even resulted in a new genre in landscape research rapidly gaining in popularity under the heading of landscape biography In Landscape Biographies twenty geographers archaeologists historians and anthropologists investigate the diverse ways in which landscapes and monuments have been constructed transmitted and transformed from prehistory up to the present from Manhattan to Shanghai from Iceland to Portugal and from England to Estonia Among the authors are distinguished scholars like G sli P lsson Cornelius Holtorf Joshua Pollard and Mark Gillings
