Language Alternation, Language Choice and Language Encounter in International Tertiary Education Hartmut Haberland, Dorte Lønsmann, Bent Preisler, 2013-06-26 Reflecting the increased use of English as lingua franca in today's university education this volume maps the interplay and competition between English and other tongues in a learning community that in practice is not only bilingual but multilingual The volume includes case studies from Japan Australia South Africa Germany Catalonia China Denmark and Sweden analysing a range of issues such as the conflict between the students native languages and English the reality of parallel teaching in English as well as in the local language and classrooms that are nominally English speaking but multilingual in practice The book assesses the factors common to successful bilingual learners and provides university administrators policy makers and teachers around the world with a much needed commentary on the challenges they face in increasingly multilingual surroundings characterized by a heterogeneous student population Patterns of language alternation and choice have become increasingly important to the development of an understanding of the internationalisation of higher education that is occurring world wide This volume draws on the extensive and varied literature related to the sociolinguistics of globalisation linguistic ethnography discourse analysis language teaching language and identity and language planning as the theoretical bases for the description of the nature of these emerging multilingual communities that are increasingly found in international education It uses observational data from eleven studies that take into account the macro societal meso university and micro participant levels of language interaction to explicate the range of language encounters highlighting both successful and problematic interactions and their related language ideologies Although English is the common lingua franca the studies in the volume highlight the importance of the multilingual resources available to participants in higher educational institutions that are used to negotiate and solve their language problems The volume brings to our attention a range of important insights into language issues found in the internationalisation of higher education and provides a resource for those wishing to understand or do research on how language hybridity and multilingual communicative practices are evolving there Richard B Baldauf Jr Professor The University of Queensland

An Introduction to Business Accounting for Managers W. C. F. Hartley, 2014-05-19 An Introduction to Business Accounting for Managers Third Edition reviews developments in the business accounting arena including the crystallization of accounting thought on how to deal with escalating rates of inflation culminating in the proposals for Current Cost Accounting the acute cash crisis itself an offshoot of inflation faced by many companies in the mid 1970s leading to a greater need for awareness and control of cash flow the specter of several major company collapses and scandals leading to a growing demand for accounting standards and the growing use of value added within accounting and reporting systems This book is comprised of 17 chapters and begins with a discussion on the use and abuse of accounting with emphasis on financial accounting and cost accounting management's use of accounting and the reliability of accounting service The reader is then introduced to the principles of bookkeeping marginal costing and corporate taxation accounting concepts and accounting standards preparation of balance sheet and ascertainment of a company's profit or loss and financial position and annual accounts of a limited company A comparison of profit and cash flow is also presented and the use of accounting as an aid to management planning and control is explained This monograph will be a valuable resource for accountants and business and financial managers

Globalisation of Accounting Standards Jayne Maree Godfrey, Keryn Chalmers, 2007-01-01 In this book Jayne Godfrey and Keryn Chalmers explore the intricacies of the globalisation of accounting standards arguably one of the most significant business developments of the wider globalisation process during the past two decades They examine the key issues and implications of this harmonization of accounting standards from the perspectives of a diverse range of worldwide stakeholders Globalisation of Accounting Standards shows that globalisation approaches differ significantly because countries seek to maintain varying degrees of sovereignty over their regulations International differences in economic political legal religious and social characteristics also affect globalisation approaches and in turn influence national accounting standard setting agendas The book explores why countries relinquish their existing national accounting standard setting regimes to join the global movement It also seeks to resolve questions such as To what extent are national incentives altruistic economic political or social Who are the winners and losers in the process This authoritative book is thoroughly researched and expertly informed Written by both academics and regulators it tackles a critical and controversial issue in the globalisation movement As such it will be of great interest to a wide ranging audience including international national private and public sector standard setters economic regulators accounting academics and political economists and strategists
