through visions such as Orientalist fairylands are analysed to show the extent to which fairy tales were used to negotiate different experiences of modernity the giddy adventures of social mobility consumer culture and identity transformation the threats and anxieties of cultural change impermanence and mutability Moen traces the evolution of the fairy tale in film to its self aestheticising peak in Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs alongside ironic allusions in films like Hitchcock's Rebecca and Howard Hawks' Ball of Fire concluding with an examination of how fairy tale visions of fantastic transformation have seen a resurgence in contemporary cinema from Tim Burton to Harry Potter In the process he shows how cinema made fairy tales modern and fairy tales helped make cinema what it is today
