Joyce's Finnegans Wake John P. Anderson,2008-07 This non academic author presents his key to opening James Joyce s infamously difficult and endlessly playful novel Finnegans Wake The key was fashioned in Kabbalah an ancient Jewish mystical tradition that as interpreted by Joyce champions independent individualism as the path to the highest spirituality Kabbalah images a universe excreted by the ultimate god a universe that is necessarily finite and limited that came with its own secondary god that is finite and limited the god presented in Genesis that issues blessing and curses designed to make mankind fearful and dependent the curse of Kabbalah Joyce laid this curse in his dream like Book of the Night in the elastic way that the latent or hidden content of a dream distorts the presentation of dream materials Acting like a black hole this curse pressures the main character Harold Chimpden Earwicker to fall to become fearful and dependent just like everyone else that is reduced to the mere initials HCE for Here Comes Everybody Joyce traces this curse from the myths in Genesis to the primal horde the first social organization of humans to the Oedipal Complex and to nation state warfare such as the Battle of Waterloo In a groundbreaking presentation Anderson deciphers word by word the first two chapters and part of the last chapter to show how this key opens the lock He shows for example how the joined ending and beginning of Joyce's wisdom book form the Hebrew word for curse and the ending shows confrontation rather than repression of fear of death as the key to life to your own wake

The Hominoid Encounter B. Seshadri, 2011-08 Over the past century a mass of evidence has surfaced on the possible survival of one or more forms of man like primates relict hominoids in the more inaccessible parts of the world There are documented sightings by explorers supplemented by travellers observations affirmations by people living in the wild regions a host of other clues The accumulated material favours two maybe three strange human like creatures the Almas in the wastes high mountains of west Mongolia and beyond in Central Asia the Yeti in the middle snow clad heights of the Himalayas and the Sasquatch in the mountainous forests of the Pacific north west the Florida swamps of North America The story in this book is founded on the recorded oral history of the Almas and on the assumption that it exists It also describes the perils of a journey of a young explorer who goes in its search his triumph when he is on the eve of discovery and the deadly consequences for both pursuer and pursued for mistakes made

The Detective as Historian Ray B. Browne, Lawrence A. Kreiser, Jr, 2013-02 Readers of detective stories are turning more toward historical crime fiction to learn both what everyday life was like in past societies and how society coped with those who broke the laws and restrictions of the times The crime fiction treated here ranges from ancient Egypt through classical Greece and Rome from medieval and renaissance China and Europe through nineteenth century England and America Topics include Ellis Peter's Brother Cadfael Umberto Eco's Name of the Rose Susanna Gregory's Doctor Matthew Bartholomew Peter Heck's Mark Twain as detective Anne Perry and her Victorian era world Caleb Carr's works and Elizabeth Peter's Egyptologist adventurer tales

The Art of the Turkish Tale Barbara K. Walker, 1990 In casting them into English Walker has paid particular attention to capturing the flavor and excitement of the Turkish telling while not infringing on the narrator's right to have the tale recreated as he had told it The Beauty power and appeal of the present volume for the general reading public however depends largely upon Barbara Walker's own consummate skill as a teller and re-teller of tales and her commitment to conveying as much of the Turkish performance context as possible. In a gesture which is perhaps symptomatic of the reasons for this volume's success, Barbara Walker recognizes in the Acknowledgments section each and every tale teller by name, all forty of them ranging in age from nine to ninety and coming from the many different walks of life, both urban and rural, to be found in twenty out of Turkey's seventy-four provinces, from Mugla to Kars and from Istanbul to Diyarbakir. In presenting the works of all these generous bearers of tradition to an English-speaking audience, she has achieved her aim of opening a small window on the art of the Turkish tale in a volume which stands as a tribute to the art of book-making as well. Sarah Moment Atis, Chair, Middle East Studies Program, University of Wisconsin-Madison, President, Turkish Studies Association. This will stand as a fine quintessential contribution. One hears the whispers of the original voices in these versions, all of which are artful recasts in colloquial rhythms and couched in a style that conveys the substance, the shape, the spirit, and the sumptuousness or the simplicity of the tale. Talat Sait Halman, Turkey's former Minister of Culture, then Ambassador for Cultural Affairs, now Professor of Near Eastern Languages and Literatures, New York University.

A Best Book of 2017. Writer's Bone: A mysterious work of metafiction, dizzying, arresting, and defiantly bold. Laura Pearson, Chicago Tribune. Amrapali Anna Singh is an historian and analyst capable of discerning the most cryptic and trivial details from audio recordings. One day a mysterious man appears at her office in Dutch Harbor, Alaska, having traveled a great distance to bring her three Type IV audio cassettes that bear the stamp of a library in Buenos Aires that may or may not exist. On the cassettes is the deposition of an adventure journalist and his obsessive pursuit of an amorphous, legendary, and puzzling City of Dreams. Spanning decades, his quest leads him from a snake hunter in the Louisiana bayou to the walled city of Kowloon on the eve of its destruction, from the Singing Dunes of Mongolia to a chess tournament in Istanbul. The deposition also begs the question: Who is making the recording, and why? Despite being explicitly instructed not to, curiosity gets the better of Singh, and she mails a transcription of the cassettes with her analysis to an acquaintance before vanishing. The man who bore the cassettes too has disappeared. The journalist was unnamed. Here for the first time is the complete archival manuscript of the mysterious recordings, accompanied by Singh's analysis.
