The Last Frontiers On Earth:

The Chronicles of America Series: The last frontier ,1918 The Last Frontier Courtney Ryley Cooper,1923

The Last Frontier Edward Alexander Powell,1912 The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans John Hannigan,2016-01-11 Long regarded as an empty and inhospitable environment the deep ocean is rapidly emerging as an ecological hot spot with a remarkable diversity of biological life Yet the worlds oceans are currently on a dangerous trajectory of decline threatened by acidification oil and gas drilling overfishing and in the long term deep sea mining bioprospecting and geo engineering In The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans noted environmental sociologist John Hannigan examines the past present and future of our planets final frontier The author argues that our understanding of the deep its definition boundaries value ownership health and future state depends on whether we see it first and foremost as a resource cornucopia a political chessboard a shared commons or a unique and threatened ecology He concludes by locating a new storyline that imagines the oceans as a canary in the mineshaft for gauging the impact of global climate change The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans is a unique introduction to the geography law politics and sociology of the sub surface ocean It will appeal to anyone seriously concerned about the present state and future fate of the largest single habitat for life on our planet The Spacefaring Earth Michael G. Smith,2024-12-04 This engaging survey of the Space Age links science and technology with politics and popular culture war and peace and crises and controversies It examines the history of spaceflight as a mirror of human thought and action across the Earth The volume encompasses the new astronomy and sciences of the modern era the early dreamers and pioneers after 1903 the national competitions of the First World War the rocket states that prepared for the Second World War the rivalries and space race of the Cold War between the US and USSR as well as more recent developments including the Space Shuttle the International Space Station national space programs orbital technologies transhumanism and military and commercial ventures in space It also stresses the importance of geography in the geopolitics of spaceflight competition and in the nature of the planetary biosphere Taking a chronological approach to lived human experience and threshold achievements the chapters show how these themes have been reflected in literature art music film and our new digital worlds This book is essential reading for students of the history of the Space Age as well as an excellent companion to courses on twentieth century science and technology the Cold War and American history Defense Industry Bulletin ,1968 Mission Frontiers Volume 1 Ralph D. Winter,2004 Transnational Frontiers of Asia and Latin America since 1800 Jaime Moreno Tejada,Bradley Tatar,2016-08-19 Frontiers are wild The frontier is a zone of interaction between distinct polities peoples languages ecosystems and economies but how do these frontier spaces develop If the frontier is shaped by the policing of borders by the modern nation state then what kind of zones regions or cultural areas are created around borders This book provides 16 different case studies of frontiers in Asia and Latin America by interdisciplinary scholars charting the first steps toward a transnational and transcontinental history of social development in the borderlands of two continents

Transnationalism provides a shared focus for the contributions drawing upon diverse theoretical perspectives to examine the place making projects of nation states Through the lenses of different scales and time frames the contributors examine the social processes of frontier life and how the frontiers have been created through the exertions of nation states to control marginal or borderland peoples The most significant cases of industrialization resource extraction and colonization projects in Asia and Latin America are examined in this book reveal the incompleteness of frontiers as modernist spatial projects but also their creativity as sources of new social patterns new human adaptations and new cultural outlooks and ways of confronting power and privilege The incompleteness of frontiers does not detract from their power to move ideas peoples and practices across borders both territorial and conceptual In bringing together Asian and Latin American cases of frontier making this book points toward a comparativist and cosmopolitan approach in the study of statecraft and modernity For scholars of Latin America and or Asia it brings together historical themes and geographic foci providing studies accessible to researchers in anthropology geography history politics cultural studies and other fields of the human sciences

Words for a Dying World Hannah Malcolm, 2020-12-07 How do we talk about climate grief in the church And when we have found the words what do we do with that grief There is a sudden and dramatic rise in people experiencing a profound sense of anxiety in the face of our dying planet and a consequent need for churches to be better resourced pastorally and theologically to deal with this threat Words for a Dying World brings together voices from across the world from the Pacific islands to the pipelines of Canada from farming communities in Namibia to activism in the UK Author royalties from the sale of this book are split evenly between contributors The majority will be pooled as a donation to ClientEarth The remainder will directly support the communities represented in this collection Contributors include Anderson Jeremiah Azariah France Williams David Benjamin

Blower Holly Anna Petersen Isabel Mukonyora Jione Havea and Maggi Dawn Politics and the Urban Frontier Tom Goodfellow, 2022-09-26 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence. It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations. Despite the rise of global technocratic ideals of city making, cities around the world are not merging into indistinguishable duplicates of one another. In fact, as the world urbanizes, urban formations remain diverse in their socioeconomic and spatial characteristics with varying potential to foster economic development and social justice. In this book, Tom Goodfellow argues that these differences are primarily rooted in politics and if we continue to view cities as economic and technological projects to be managed rather than terrains of political bargaining and contestation, the quest for better urban futures is doomed to fail. Dominant critical approaches to urban development tend to explain difference with reference to the variegated impacts of neoliberal regulatory institutions. This, however, neglects the multiple ways in which the wider politics of capital accumulation and distribution drive divergent forms of transformation in different urban places. In order to unpack the politics that shapes differential urban development, this book focuses on East Africa as the global urban frontier, the least urbanized but fastest urbanizing region in the world. Drawing on a decade of research spanning three case study countries, Ethiopia, Rwanda, and Uganda, Politics and the Urban Frontier provides the first sustained book-length comparative analysis of urban development trajectories in Eastern Africa and the political dynamics that underpin them. Through a focus on infrastructure investment, urban propertyscapes, street-level trading economies, and urban political protest, it offers a multi-scalar, historically grounded and interdisciplinary analysis of the urban transformations unfolding in the world's most dynamic crucible of urban change.

Art, the Sublime, and Movement Amanda du Preez, 2022-01-31 This book is a critical interdisciplinary approach to the study of contemporary visual culture and image studies, exploring ideas about space and place and ultimately contributing to the debates about being human in the digital age. The upward and downward pull seem in a constant contest for humanity's attention. Both forces are powerful in the effects and affects they invoke. When tracing this iconological history, Amanda du Preez starts in the early nineteenth century, moving into the twentieth century and then spanning the whole century up to contemporary twenty-first-century screen culture and space travels. Du Preez parses the intersecting pathways between Heaven and Earth, up and down, flying and falling, through the concept of being spaced out. The idea of being spaced out is applied as a metaphor to trace the visual history of sublime encounters that displace Earth, gravity, locality, belonging, home, real life, and embodiment. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, visual culture, media, and cultural studies, phenomenology, digital culture, mobility studies, and urban studies.

New World Orderings Lisa Rofel, Carlos Rojas, 2022-11-09 The contributors to New World Orderings demonstrate that China's twenty-first-century rise occurs not only through economics and state politics but equally through the mutual entanglements of overlapping social, economic, and cultural worlds in Southeast Asia, Africa, and Latin America.

They show how the Chinese state has sought to reconfigure the nation's position in the world and the centrality of trade labor religion migration gender race and literature to this reconfiguration Among other topics the contributors examine China's post Bandung cultural diplomacy with African nations how West African pastor entrepreneurs in China interpreted and preached the prosperity doctrine the diversity of Chinese Argentine social relations in the soy supply chain and the ties between China and India within the complex history of inter Asian exchange and Chinese migration to Southeast Asia By examining China's long historical relationship with the Global South this volume presents a non state centric history of China that foregrounds the importance of transnational communicative and imaginative worldmaking processes and interactions Contributors Andrea Bachner Luciano Damián Bolinaga Nellie Chu Rachel Cypher Mingwei Huang T Tu Huynh Yu lin Lee Ng Kim Chew Lisa Rofel Carlos Rojas Shuang Shen Derek Sheridan Nicolai Volland Reconsidering Woodrow Wilson Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars,2008-09-30 Some of today's premier experts on Woodrow Wilson contribute to this new collection of essays about the former statesman portraying him as a complex even paradoxical president Reconsidering Woodrow Wilson reveals a person who was at once an international idealist a structural reformer of the nation's economy and a policy maker who was simultaneously accommodating indifferent resistant and hostile to racial and gender reform Wilson's progressivism is discussed in chapters by biographer John Milton Cooper and historians Trygve Throntveit and W Elliot Brownlee Wilson's philosophy about race and nation is taken up by Gary Gerstle and his gender politics discussed by Victoria Bissel Brown The seeds of Wilsonianism are considered in chapters by Mark T Gilderhus on Wilson's Latin American diplomacy and war Geoffrey R Stone on Wilson's suppression of seditious speech and Lloyd Ambrosius on entry into World War I Emily S Rosenberg and Frank Ninkovich explore the impact of Wilson's internationalism on capitalism and diplomacy Martin Walker sets out the echoes of Wilson's themes in the cold war and Anne Marie Slaughter suggests how Wilson might view the promotion of liberal democracy today These essays were originally written for a celebration of Wilson's 150th birthday sponsored by the official national memorial to Wilson the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in collaboration with the Woodrow Wilson House That daylong symposium examined some of the most important and controversial areas of Wilson's political life and presidency Victims of a Map Mahmoud Darwish,Samih Al-Qasim,Adonis,2005-06-16 Mahmud Darwish Samih al Qasim and Adonis are amongst the leading poets in the Arab world today Victims of a Map presents some of their finest work in translation alongside the original Arabic including thirteen poems by Darwish never before published in English or Arabic and a long work by Adonis written during the 1982 siege of Beirut also published here for the first time Boys' Life ,1947-01 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Annual Report International Fertilizer Development Center,1990
