

The book cover features a surreal landscape. On the left, a large, lush green tree with thick, spreading roots stands on a patch of green grass. A path of light-colored, possibly stone or sand, leads from the foreground towards the background, flanked by green grass on the left and a sandy, barren area on the right. In the background, a city skyline is visible through a hazy, green-tinted atmosphere. To the right of the path, there are tall, jagged, and seemingly ruined structures that look like remnants of a civilization. The overall color palette is dominated by various shades of green, with some brown and grey tones in the ruins and path.
