California Impressionists Susan Landauer, Irvine Museum, Georgia Museum of Art, Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, 1996 The years around the turn of the century were a dynamic time in American art Different and seemingly contradictory movements were evolving and the dominant style that emerged during this period was Impressionism Based in part on the broken brushwork and high keyed palette of Claude Monet it was a form especially suited to the dramatic landscape and shimmering light of California American Impressionism grew in popularity as artists from across the nation migrated to the Golden State There they created a remarkable style often referred to as California plein air painting combining several aspects of American and European art and capturing the brilliant mix of color and light that defined California This book celebrates forty Impressionist painters who worked in California from 1900 through the beginning of the Great Depression A joint effort of The Irvine Museum and the Georgia Museum of Art it includes widely recognized California artists such as Maurice Braun and Guy Rose less well known artists such as Mary DeNeale Morgan and Donna Schuster and eastern painters who worked briefly in the region such as Childe Hassam and William Merritt Chase The contributors essays examine the socioeconomic forces that shaped this art movement as well as the ways in which the art reflected California s self cultivated image as a healthful sun splashed arcadia Beautifully illustrated with 72 full color plates California Impressionists recreates the vibrant splendor of a unique period in American art Six Early Women Artists ,1991 AP Art History Premium, Sixth Edition: Prep Book with 5 Practice Tests + Comprehensive Review + Online Practice Barron's Educational Series,John B.
