Journal of Character Education Marvin W. Berkowitz, Jonathan M. Tirrell, 2023-12-01 The Journal of Character Education is the leading source of cutting edge knowledge about character education research, theory, practice, and opinion. We define character education broadly to encompass all educational approaches designed to nurture students' knowledge, motivation, skills, and behavior concerning all four aspects of character: moral, performance, civic, and intellectual. The Journal publishes manuscripts that report research relevant to character education, conceptual articles, and book reviews that provide theoretical, historical, and philosophical perspectives on the field of character education as it is broadly defined above. The Journal is also interested in practical articles about implementation and specific programs and informed opinion statements.

It examines emotions in families, communication, relationship formation, dissolution, family rituals, and power and conflict. Chapters open with a Preview and conclude with a Summary, Study Questions, Key Terms, and Suggested Readings. Principle Boxes highlight key concepts, and a Glossary defines the key terms listed at the ends of the chapters. Significantly updated with 50% new material, including many new references and examples, the new edition features a new chapter that introduces the discipline's methodology, a new chapter on relationship formation including partner selection, falling in love, commitment, sexuality, passion, and intimacy, a new design reformatted to tie in with the book's website at <http://www.psyppress.com/family-processes>, which now contains the Chapter Activity Questions that reinforce critical thinking skills, the Journal Activities that strengthen students' personal connection to the material, and the chapter Previews and Key Terms for review purposes.
