Skin Im In A First Look At Racism:

The Skin I'm In Pat Thomas, 2003-03-01 There are children experiencing the pain of racism This book is here for you to help the cope with that abhorrent reality Racial discrimination is cruel and inhumane especially so to younger children This book encourages kids to accept and love what makes them different and beautiful Parents teachers and gift givers will find language that is simple direct and easier for younger children to understand a book about how to help and empower children suffering from racism a helpful book written by a psychotherapist and counselor a whole series of books for children to explore emotional issues The A First Look At series promotes positive interaction among children parents and teachers and encourage kids to ask questions and confront social and emotional questions that sometimes present problems Books feature appealing full color illustrations on every page plus a page of advice to parents and teachers Life and Loss Linda

Goldman, 2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child s healthy development Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief educational success and responsible citizenry The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children s grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children Children s grief is now endemic it is global Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century it s the book they need to work with it in constructive ways

Integrative Antiracism Edith P. Samuel, 2005-01-01 From both a theoretical and practical standpoint racism is one of the most important topics that has engaged the attention of social scientists in North America in recent years As societies become more ethnically diverse people from different cultures are increasingly coming into contact with each other resulting in ever greater opportunities for racism to manifest itself In this work Edith Samuel examines the educational experiences of South Asian students and faculty members from the perspective of integrative antiracism the study of how the dynamics of social difference are mediated in people s daily lives Specifically she analyses perceptions of and responses to racism in four critical areas faculty student relationships peer group interactions curriculum and the psychosocial dimension Antiracism scholars maintain that racism is widespread on Canadian university campuses Drawing on the available literature and extensive interviews with students and faculty Samuel looks at both overt and covert forms of racism as well as structural racism that results in discrimination in admissions and employment She also looks at race class gender history and culture and how these interlocking systems produce unique experiences of racism for South Asians in academe Through the exploration of the intricate patterns of South Asians assimilation into university life Integrative Antiracism identifies the numerous barriers racial minorities encounter and suggests a variety of approaches to fostering a more equitable education system      Counseling Children and Adolescents Through Grief and Loss Jody J. Fiorini, Jodi Ann Mullen, 2006 Provides developmentally appropriate interventions for counselling children and adolescents who have experienced a wide range of grief and loss including secondary and intangible losses such as moving or divorce It provides a method for assessing individual needs and offers guidelines for selecting appropriate counselling strategies      The Princess Problem Rebecca

Hains PhD, 2014-09-02 How to Raise Empowered Girls in a Princess World It's no secret that little girls love princesses but behind the twirly dresses and glittery crowns sits a powerful marketing machine delivering negative stereotypes about gender race and beauty to young girls So how can you protect your daughter fight back and offer new less harmful options for their princess obsession The Princess Problem features real advice and stories from parents educators psychologists children's industry insiders that will help equip our daughters to navigate the princess saturated media landscape With excellent research and tips to guide parents through honest conversations with their kids The Princess Problem is the parenting resource to raising thoughtful open minded children a very insightful look at our princess culture Parents this is a must read Brenda Chapman Writer Director Disney Pixar's BRAVE      Burnt Eucalyptus Wood Ennatu

Domingo, 2023-04-20 Who are you when you come from two places Ennatu Domingo was adopted from Ethiopia at the age of seven and transplanted to Barcelona where she learned to flourish But she never forgot her nomadic childhood in the mountains and meadows of Gondar near the northern border with Eritrea Having witnessed the hardships of Ethiopian rural women at an early age she was inspired to study the patriarchal structures that underpinned her individual experiences both in Europe and in contemporary Ethiopia She has lived in Kenya Belgium and the UK and has traveled across five continents but keeps returning to the country of her childhood to re-construct a lost identity guided by the echo of her first language Amharic and the weight of a rich cultural heritage Torn between forgetting and remembering Ennatu explores the dilemma of international adoptees and migrant kids and their quest for belonging in a book destined to be a classic of its genre

Spatialized Islamophobia Kawtar Najib, 2021-11-17 This book demonstrates the spatialized and multi-scalar nature of Islamophobia It provides ground-breaking insights in recognising the importance of space in the formation of anti-Muslim racism Through the exploration of complementary data both from existing quantitative databases and directly from victims of Islamophobia applied in two important European capitals Paris and London this book brings new materials to research on Islamophobia and argues that Islamophobia is also a spatialized process that occurs at various interrelated spatial scales globe nation urban neighbourhood and body and mind In so doing this book establishes and advances the new concept of Spatialized Islamophobia by exploring global national urban infra-urban embodied and emotional Islamophobias as well as their complex interrelationships It also offers a critical discussion of the geographies of Islamophobia by pointing out the lack of geographical approaches to Islamophobia Studies By using self-reflexivity the author raises important questions that may have hampered the study of Spatialized Islamophobia focusing in particular on the favoured methodologies which too often remain qualitative as well as on the whiteness of the discipline of Geography which can disrupt the legitimacy of a certain knowledge The book will be an important reference for those in the fields of Human Geography Sociology Politics Racial Studies Religious Studies and Muslim studies      Whiteness and Stigma in the Workplace Anne Crafford,2022-08-24 Drawing on theories of whiteness stigma identity formation and identity work this monograph aims to explore the ways in which racial categories continue to structure the lives of professionals of colour in South Africa Using a Bourdieusian lens it draws on personal narratives of professionals in the fields of accounting engineering and industrial psychology examining how stigma and whiteness continue to constrain their identity development in the public professional and personal spaces they inhabit Examining the unique post Apartheid situation of South Africa this book will be valuable reading to scholars interested in the intersection of race professions and organisation      Finding Lost Maisen Hill,2018-06-05 Lost Let me save you some time Hes a storyteller that rhymes So have a seat relax and unwind His message is peace His identity is a mystery Because when you ask him for his name He says Its Lost      The Changing Face of Europe Bülent Kaya,2002-01-01 This study examines all aspects of migration its different flows and types such as economic forced and ethnic as well as its impact on economics demography and social and cultural life National policies on integration and naturalisation and how they are conditioned are examined and compared From a variety of sources maps statistics first person accounts of migration life novels films and surveys a web of causes and effects emerges depicting migrant life today In this way the reader gains an overview and the beginning of a deeper understanding of this complex subject
