Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1947 Includes Part 1A Books Part 1B Pamphlets Serials and Contributions to Periodicals and Part 2 Periodicals Part 2 Periodicals incorporates Part 2 Volume 41 1946 New Series John Betjeman William S. Peterson, 2006 Sir John Betjeman 1906 1984 Poet Laureate was probably the most widely read English poet of the twentieth century Because of his frequent appearances on radio and television and his fervent devotion to the preservation of England's architectural heritage his face and voice became familiar to millions Few other poets of any century have had such a powerful influence on their contemporaries This bibliography lists and describes all of his known writings including his own books ephemera contributions to periodicals and to books by others lectures and radio and television programmes Other categories such as editorships music settings and dramatic adaptations of his poems recordings and interviews are also included as well as a section devoted to writings about him Manuscripts and drafts of all his works are described in detail This enormous body of material is thoroughly indexed cross referenced and in most cases annotated Now at last the activities of this remarkable man both a poet and a cultural phenomenon can be seen in their full breadth and complexity The Art of Restraint Richard Hoffpauir, 1991 Richard Hoffpauir argues that the works of the best poets have found ways of not capitulating to contemporary reality and outlines the terms of the debate by setting the weaknesses of Yeats against the strengths of Hardy Subsequent chapters discuss the nature poetry of Edward Thomas the war poetry of Graves Blunden and Gurney the love poetry of Bridges Lawrence and Graves and the political and social verse of Rickword Daryush Betjeman and Larkin John Betjeman Greg Morse, 2012 John Betjeman was undoubtedly the most popular Poet Laureate since Tennyson But beneath the thoroughly modern window on Britain that he opened during his lifetime lay the influence of his nineteenth century forbears This book explores his identity through such Victorianism via the verse of that period but also its architecture religious faith and more importantly religious doubt It was nevertheless a process which took time In the 1930s Betjeman's work was tinted with modernism and traditionalism He found Victorian buildings funny and wrote much in praise of the Bauhaus style even though his early poetry was peppered with Victorian references This leaning was incorporated into a greater sense of purpose during World War 2 when he transformed himself from precious humorist into propagandist The resulting sense of cohesion grew when the dangers of post war urban redevelopment heightened the need to critique the present via the poetics of the past a mood which continued up to and beyond his gaining the Laureateship in 1972 This duty proved to be a millstone so the official poems are thus explored by the author more fully than hitherto The conclusion of looks back to Betjeman's 1960 verse autobiography Summoned by Bells which is seen as the apogee of his achievement and a snapshot of his identity Included here is the first critical appreciation of the lyrics embodied within the text which are taken as a map of the young poet's literary growth Larkin's 1959 question What exactly is Betjeman then leads to a final appraisal of his originality as evidenced by his glances towards postmodernism

feminism and post colonialism The fact is that Betjeman never quite fits in anywhere He is always a square peg in a round hole or a round peg in a square hole often for the sheer enjoyment of so being In a sense his desire to be as non conformist as a Quaker meeting house makes him a radical rather than the reactionary that his interests imply He was a champion of beauty and the British Isles and clearly did much to make us see the worth of our Victorian forebears Greg Morse s book highlights this important facet of his work
