Devil's Workshop: Susan Piedmont-Palladino, Mark Alden Branch, 1997 For 25 years the architects who make up Jersey Devil have been constructing their own designs while living on site in tents or Airstream trailers making adjustments to their structures in response to problems encountered during the building process Jersey Devil is a name that has been attached to work by Steve Badanes John Ringel Jim Adamson or any combination of the above plus many other people who have participated in their diverse projects This loose knit group of designer builders has created projects that critique conventional practice both the process of making architecture and the accepted definitions of architecture itself Jersey Devil s architecture shows a concern for craft and detail an attention to the expressiveness of the construction materials and a strong environmental consciousness Devil s Workshop contains complete project descriptions photographs drawings and plans on more than a dozen projects including the Snail House the Silo House the Hoagie House and the Seaside Pavillion Essays analyze Jersey Devil s work providing an insight into the design build process and its historical context and discussing the formal qualities inherent in these projects Chinese Television in the Twenty-First Century Ruoyun Bai, Geng Song, 2014-09-15 The past two decades witnessed the rise of television entertainment in China Although television networks are still state owned and Party controlled in China the ideological landscape of television programs has become increasingly diverse and even paradoxical simultaneously subservient and defiant nationalistic and cosmopolitan moralistic and fun loving extravagant and mundane Studying Chinese television as a key node in the network of power relationships therefore provides us with a unique opportunity to understand the tension fraught and paradox permeated conditions of Chinese post socialism This book argues for a serious engagement with television entertainment rethinking It addresses the following questions How is entertainment television politically and culturally significant in the Chinese context How have political industrial and technological changes in the 2000s affected the way Chinese television relates to the state and society How can we think of media regulation and censorship without perpetuating the myth of a self serving authoritarian regime vs a subdued cultural workforce What do popular televisual texts tell us about the unsettled and reconfigured relations between commercial television and the state The book presents a number of studies of popular television programs that are sensitive to the changing production and regulatory contexts for Chinese television in the twenty first century As an interdisciplinary study of the television industry this book covers a number of important issues in China today such as censorship nationalism consumerism social justice and the central and local authorities As such it will appeal to a broad audience including students and scholars of Chinese culture and society media studies television studies and cultural studies Teaching with Favorite Leo Lionni Books Kathleen M. Hollenbeck, 2000 Engaging teaching activities and rare inside glimpse into Leo Lionni s creative process that will captivate your students almost as much as Swimmy and Frederick do To-day, 1852 Haa Tuwunáagu Yís, for Healing Our Spirit Nora Dauenhauer, Richard Dauenhauer, 1990 Haa Tuwunaagu Yis for Healing Our Spirit is the first publication of Tlingit oratory recorded in performance. It features Tlingit texts with facing English translations and detailed annotations, photographs of the orators and the settings in which the speeches were delivered, and biographies of the elders. There are thirty-two speeches by twenty-one Tlingit elders. Most were taped between 1968 and 1988, but two speeches were recorded on wax cylinders by the Harriman Expedition in Sitka in 1899 and are the oldest known sound recordings of Tlingit. The book is of importance both to native and non-native readers alike. For those of Native American heritage, it articulates concepts understood and practiced by elders but difficult for them to explain and often bewildering to younger generations. For people around the world interested in Northwest Coast culture, it offers new insights into a traditional world view and the classics of Tlingit oral literature. Careful attention is given to transcription, translation, and annotation by the collaboration of Nora Marks Dauenhauer, a native speaker of Tlingit and a published poet with a degree in anthropology, and her husband Richard Dauenhauer, a translator of European poetry and a former poet laureate of Alaska with a Ph.D. in comparative literature.

To-day: a Boston Literary Journal, 1852 To-day Charles Hale, 1852 To-day, a Boston literary journal, ed. by C. Hale Charles Hale, 1852 Tremaine Houses Volker M. Welter, 2019-11-19 This volume analyzes the extraordinary patronage of modern architecture that the Tremaine family sustained for nearly four decades in the mid-twentieth century. From the late 1930s to the early 1970s, two brothers, Burton G. Tremaine and Warren D. Tremaine, and their respective wives, Emily Hall Tremaine and Katharine Williams Tremaine, commissioned approximately thirty architecture and design projects. Richard Neutra and Oscar Niemeyer designed the best-known Tremaine houses. Philip Johnson and Frank Lloyd Wright also created designs and buildings for the family that achieved iconic status in the modern movement. Focusing on the Tremaine houses and other projects such as a visitor center at the Meteor Crater in Arizona, this volume explores the Tremaine architectural patronage in terms of the family's motivations and values, exposing patterns in what may appear as an eclectic collection of modern architecture. Architectural historian Volker M. Welter argues that the Tremaine patronage was not driven by any single factor; rather, it stemmed from a network of motives comprising the clients' practical requirements, their private and public lives, and their ideas about architecture and art.

Poems and Translations Lewis Frederick Starrett, 1887 The Story-book of Science Jean-Henri Fabre, 2023-11-09 In The Story-book of Science, Jean-Henri Fabre artfully weaves a narrative that marries scientific inquiry with accessible storytelling. This collection of essays delves into the fascinating world of entomology, revealing the intricate behaviors and lives of insects through vivid prose and keen observation. Fabre's literary style, characterized by its poetic descriptions and evocative language, invites readers to marvel at the wonders of the natural world. Set against the backdrop of 19th-century scientific exploration, the work reflects Fabre's commitment to making science approachable and engaging, highlighting the intersection between art and science. Jean-Henri Fabre, often regarded as the father of modern entomology, possessed an insatiable curiosity for the natural world. His meticulous studies and observations of insects stemmed from a profound respect and love for nature combined with a desire to educate the public Fabre's extensive background in natural history combined with a gift for storytelling uniquely positioned him to create a work that not only informs but also inspires wonder in his readers about the complexities of life The Story book of Science is highly recommended for anyone seeking an enriching blend of literature and science Fabre's ability to illuminate intricate details and bring the unseen world of insects to life will captivate enthusiasts of all ages making it an essential read for those interested in understanding the marvels of the natural world

Queen of Snails Maureen Burdock,2022-11-29 Uprooted from her childhood in Germany and set adrift in the American Midwest Maureen was raised by a kind but neglectful mother who loved Jesus more than her own child and a stern disinterested grandmother who waxed nostalgic about Nazi Germany Growing up queer and isolated Maureen often felt unmoored and unloved Years later Maureen reflects upon her complicated past Queen of Snails follows Maureen through time and memory in her quest to untangle the trauma passed down to her over three generations of women Part memoir and part family history Queen of Snails is a beautifully drawn powerful story that examines and transmutes the emotional baggage of violence abandonment and displacement

Moving to Goa Katarina Kakar,2013-12-15 Many people dream of escaping the stresses and strains of urban life and moving to Goa Katharina Kakar and her husband the psychoanalyst and writer Sudhir Kakar followed their dream and boldly took that plunge buying a charming old house in a tranquil south Goa village where they hoped to find a whole new way of living and working Ten years later they are still there living the idyll and the reality of life in Goa So which is the real Goa Is it all about sun and sand beaches and bikinis feni and vindaloo This book captures the allure of all these as well as the festivals and rituals that punctuate the rhythm of village life It portrays fascinating local characters ranging from ageing hippies beach boys and elusive workmen to the aristocratic residents of Goa's grand old mansions But it also reveals lesser known aspects of Goa the hidden often shocking histories of its colonial past and the debates and fissures that engage and divide Goan society today In part personal memoir and travelogue in part an insightful look at Goan history and society this book portrays Goa with all its paradoxes and problems its seductive pleasures and above all its unique and enduring charm
