Snake His Story:

Snake James Marshall, 2000 Because he is different from all the other students Little Snake is ostracized at school until he overhears a plot to rob the bank and saves the day The snake, 1994 Learning Stories Margaret Carr, Wendy Lee, 2012-03-19 Margaret Carr's seminal work on Learning Stories was first published by SAGE in 2001 and this widely acclaimed approach to assessment has since gained a huge international following In this new full colour book the authors outline the philosophy behind Learning Stories and refer to the latest findings from the research projects they have led with teachers on learning dispositions and learning power to argue that Learning Stories can construct learner identities in early childhood settings and schools By making the connection between sociocultural approaches to pedagogy and assessment and narrative inquiry this book contextualizes Learning Stories as a philosophical approach to education learning and pedagogy Chapters explore how Learning Stories help make connections with families support the inclusion of children and family voices tell us stories about babies allow children to dictate their own stories can be used to revisit children's learning journeys can contribute to teaching and learning wisdom This ground breaking book expands on the concept of Learning Stories and includes examples from practice in both New Zealand and the UK It outlines the philosophy behind this pedagogical tool for documenting how learning identities are constructed and shows through research evidence why the early years is such a critical time in the formation of learning dispositions Margaret Carr is a Professor of Education at the University of Waikato New Zealand Wendy Lee is Director of the Educational Leadership Project New Zealand Health Communication in Practice Eileen Berlin Ray, 2005-03-23 Health Communication in Practice A Case Study Approach offers a comprehensive examination of the complex nature of health related communication This text contains detailed case studies that demonstrate in depth applications of communication theory in real life situations With chapters written by medical practitioners as well as communication scholars the cases included herein cover a variety of topics populations contexts and issues in health communication including provider recipient communication and its importance to subsequent diagnosis and treatment decision making social identity particularly how people redefine and renegotiate their social identity communication dynamics within families and with health care providers through unexpected health situations delivery of health care and health campaigns designed to disseminate health related information and change behaviors Reflecting the changes in health communication scholarship and education over the past decade chapters also explore current topics such as delivering bad news genetic testing intercultural communication grieving families and international health campaigns A list of relevant concepts and definitions is included at the end of each case to help students make connections between the scenario and the communication theories it reflects With its breadth of coverage and applied practical approach this timely and insightful text will serve as required reading in courses addressing the application of communication theory in a health related context Recreation, 1904 Writing in Red Nergis Ertürk, 2024-05-21 The republic of Turkey and the Soviet Union both emerged from the wreckage of empires surrounding World War I and pathways of literary exchange soon opened between the two revolutionary states Even as the Turkish government pursued a friendly relationship with the USSR it began to persecute communist writers Whether going through official channels or fleeing repression many Turkish writers traveled to the Soviet Union during the 1920s and 1930s publishing original work editing prominent literary journals and translating both Russian classics and Soviet literature into Turkish Writing in Red traces the literary and exilic itineraries of Turkish communist and former communist writers examining revolutionary aesthetics and politics across Turkey and the Soviet Union from the mid 1920s through the 1960s Nergis Ert rk considers a wide range of texts spanning genres such as erotic comedy historical fiction and film and socialist realist novels and theater by writers including N zim Hikmet V l Nureddin Nizamettin Nazif Suat Dervi and Abidin Dino She argues that these works belong simultaneously to modern Turkish literature a transnational Soviet republic of letters and the global literary archive of world revolution alongside those of other writers who made the magic pilgrimage to Moscow Exploring how Turkish communist writers on the run produced a remarkable transnational literature of dissent Writing in Red offers a new account of global revolutionary literary culture

Looking for Signs: Animals, Spirits and Death Rituals Ibaloy Perspectives (Itogon, Philippines) Laugrand (Ed.), Gliseria Magapin, Frédéric Laugrand, Jazil Tamang, 2020-02-27 This publication is the volume 3 of a series dealing with the culture and traditions of the Ibaloy of Upper Doacan Itogon Benguet Philippines It is available in Nabaloy and in English Elders share their stories to a group of youngsters who ask them questions on a variety of topics such as animals signs death rituals and spirits The book provides the verbatim accounts of these discussions recorded during a workshop that took place at the Senior Citizen hall in 2018      Globalization and Animal Law Thomas G. Kelch, 2017-05-01 The rise of the globalized economy has rendered an even more profound change in the relationship between humans and other animals than the ancient progression from huntergatherer to agricultural society In today's global markets multinational corporations exploit the economic value of animals throughout the world on an unprecedented scale The philosophical and legal notions that animals are mere unfeeling machines or pieces of property although more or less taken for granted for centuries has been challenged if not burst asunder in recent decades in law moral philosophy and cognitive and other sciences and regulation of the treatment of animals in agriculture experimentation entertainment and other areas has begun to make substantial inroads in national and international law This book provides a detailed analysis of international and comparative animal law focusing on the impact of today's globalized economy on animal law Describing a wide range of domestic and international laws relating to the treatment of animals the author explicates the sorts of legal rules which affect the global animal marketplace Representative norms in existing animal protection laws are analyzed and critiqued illustrating the diverse approaches taken by different countries and by the international community in regulating uses of animals Among the issues covered are the following contemporary philosophical thought on the relationship between humans and animals recent scientific research relating to cognitive and other abilities of animals legal issues relating to factory farming and animal slaughter legal protection of animals during transport regulatory schemes on animal experimentation laws on the use of animals in entertainment laws on protection of companion animals regulation of trade in endangered species international trade issues relating to animals including consideration of the provisions of GATT and the seminal WTO GATT decisions in the Tuna Dolphin Shrimp Turtle Tuna Labeling and EU Seal Products cases constitutional protection for the interests of animals intellectual property law issues relating to animals efforts to have the legal personhood of certain animals judicially recognized and what the future may hold for animal law in the global economy To ensure the consideration of a full range of legal approaches the laws analyzed come from a wide variety of countries and jurisdictions including Australia Austria Brazil Canada the EU Germany India Ireland New Zealand Switzerland the UK and state and federal laws of the US Numerous international treaties and conventions relevant to animal treatment and animal law are also covered including the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works the CITES Convention the European Convention for the Protection of Animals Kept for Farming Purposes the European Patent Convention the GATT Treaty the TRIPS Agreement and the Universal Copyright Convention It is not difficult to grasp given the continuing increases in production consumption and use of animals and animal products worldwide that legal initiatives in this often emotional and acrimonious area of law are frequently contentious and hard fought But this is really just the dawn of animal law which has only recently become recognized as an important cutting edge topic and this area of the law promises to develop rapidly in the future This book is enormously valuable in contributing to the continuing development and understanding of this law clearly laying out the contours and boundaries of existing animal laws in our global economy and allowing legal educators concerned lawyers and policymakers to teach formulate proposals argue cases and defenses and secure a firm purchase on future trends and developments in animal law

Vintage Games 2.0 Matt Barton, 2019-05-08 Super Mario Bros Doom Minecraft It's hard to imagine what life would be like today without video games a creative industry that now towers over Hollywood in terms of both financial and cultural impact The video game industry caters to everyone with games in every genre for every conceivable electronic device from dedicated PC gaming rigs and consoles to handhelds mobile phones and tablets Successful games are produced by mega corporations independent studios and even lone developers working with nothing but free tools Some may still believe that video games are mere diversions for children but today's games offer sophisticated and wondrously immersive experiences that no other media can hope to match Vintage Games 2.0 tells the story of the ultimate storytelling medium from early examples such as Spacewar and Pong to the mind blowing console and PC titles of today Written in a smart and engaging style this updated 2nd edition is far more than just a survey of the classics Informed by hundreds of in depth personal interviews with designers publishers marketers and artists not to mention the author's own lifelong experience as a gamer Vintage Games 2.0 uncovers the remarkable feats of intellectual genius but also the inspiring personal struggles of the world's most brilliant and celebrated game designers figures like Shigeru Miyamoto Will Wright and Roberta Williams Ideal for both beginners and professionals Vintage Games 2.0 offers an entertaining and inspiring account of video game's history and meteoric rise from niche market to global phenomenon Credit for the cover belongs to Thor Thorvaldson

A Grammar of Warrongo Tasaku Tsunoda, 2011-12-23 Warrongo is an extinct Australian Aboriginal language that used to be spoken in northeast Australia This volume is largely based on the rich data recorded from the last fluent speaker It details the phonology morphology and syntax of the language In particular it provides a truly scrutinizing description of syntactic ergativity a phenomenon that is rare among the world's language It also shows that unlike some other Australian languages Warrongo has noun phrases that are configurational Overall this volume shows what can be documented of a language that has only one speaker      The School of Alexius Meinong Liliana Albertazzi, Dale Jacquette, 2017-07-05 This book presents an historical and conceptual reconstruction of the theories developed by Meinong and a group of philosophers and experimental psychologists in Graz at the turn of the 19th century Adhering closely to original texts the contributors explore Meinong's roots in the school of Brentano complex theories such as the theory of intentional reference and direct reference and ways of developing philosophy which are closely bound up with the sciences particularly psychology Providing a faithful reconstruction of both Meinong's contributions to science and the school that arose from his thought this book shows how the theories of the Graz school raise the possibility of engaging in the scientific metaphysics and ontology that for so long have been considered off limits      Children and Mother Nature Rouhollah

Aghasaleh, 2019-08-26 It is an old yet relevant argument that education needs to focus more on real world issues in students' lives and communities Nevertheless conventional school curricula in many countries create superficial boundaries to separate natural and social worlds A call for science learning approaches that acknowledge societal standpoints accumulate that human activities are driving environmental and evolutionary change which has lead scholars to investigate how different societies respond to environmental change Children and Mother Nature is a multilingual volume that represents indigenous knowledges from various ethnic linguistic geographical and national groups of educators and students through storytelling Authors have identified indigenous stories fables and folk tales with a theme of human nature interaction and facilitated storytelling sessions with groups of students in K 8 grade 5 14 years old in Turkey Greece US Jamaica Brazil Saudi Arabia and Chinese and Korean language speaking communities in the US Students have discussed and rewritten retold the stories collaboratively and illustrated their own stories All student told stories are presented in the original language along with an English translation This volume provides authentic materials for teachers to use in their classrooms and could also be of interest to educational literary and environmental researchers to conduct comparative and international studies

Dearborn Independent, 1926      The History of Chinese Folktales Liu Shouhua, 2025-04-14 The History of Chinese Folktales is the first comprehensive study of Chinese folktale history spanning from the pre Qin period to the 20th century It references over 300 ancient texts and reviews more than 300 representative stories The book highlights three main research areas First motifs and types This involves identifying and categorizing various story motifs and types as well as analyzing subtypes to create a genealogy of folktales a process that reflects cultural exchanges among peoples Second cultural significance Employing historical materialism and cultural anthropology the book explores the cultural implications of folktales linking them to historical and cultural contexts to reveal their essence Third historical geographical comparison This involves a detailed examination of the life history of stories considering historical and geographical contexts to understand their essence and cultural flow
