Rooms of their Own Nino Strachey, 2018-10-26 Evocative engaging and filled with vivid details Rooms of their Own explores the homes of these three writers linked to the Bloomsbury Group Bringing together stories of love desire and intimacy of evolving relationships and erotic encounters with vivid accounts of the settings in which they took place it offers fresh insights into their complicated interlocking lives Complete with first hand accounts this book illuminates shifting social and moral attitudes towards sexuality and gender in the 1920s and 30s I hold the conviction that as the centuries go on and the sexes become more nearly merged on account of their increasing resemblances such connections will to a very large extent cease to be regarded as merely unnatural and will be understood far better Vita Sackville West 1920 In the deep blue Turret Room at Knole sits a battered tin trunk inscribed Edward Sackville West Various Papers Hoarded inside were the intimate records of lives lived at the heart of 1920s literary Bloomsbury Lytton Strachey James Strachey Alix Strachey Duncan Grant Bunny Garnett and Stephen Tomlin all stayed with Eddy at Knole Two of these friends Duncan Grant and

Stephen Tomlin became lovers filling his rooms with the vibrant outpourings of Bloomsbury creativity Living in an England where homosexuality was illegal until 1967 Eddy s design choices were boldly counter cultural Eddy s first cousin Vita Sackville West and her lover Virginia Woolf were equally at home in this world their names permanently associated through the publication of Orlando in 1928 Set at Knole Woolf s tribute to Vita created a hero heroine who evaded categorisations of sex and time changing as the centuries progress Linked by an intimate web of relationships Eddy Virginia and Vita created homes in Kent and East Sussex which challenged contemporary conventions While Virginia Woolf and Eddy Sackville West favoured the bright colours and bold patterns of Bloomsbury Vita Sackville West looked backwards to the Elizabethan age filling her rooms with the romantic relics of past lovers

Outsiders Lyndall Gordon,2019-03-19 Prodigy visionary outlaw orator and explorer As society s outsiders the exceptional subjects of this study inspired a new breed of women and one another Finalist of the PROSE Award for Best Book in Literature by the Association of American Publishers Mary Shelley Emily Bront George Eliot Olive Schreiner and Virginia Woolf they all wrote dazzling books that forever changed the way we see history In Outsiders award winning biographer Lyndall Gordon shows how these five novelists shared more than talent In a time when a woman s reputation was her security each of these women lost hers They were unconstrained by convention writing against the grain of their contemporaries prophetically imagining a different future We have long known the individual greatness of each of these writers but in linking their creativity to their lives as outcasts Gordon throws new light on the genius they share All five lost their mothers in childbirth or at a young age With no female role model present they learned from books and sometimes from an enlightened mentor Crucially each had to imagine what a woman could be in order to invent a voice of her own The passion in their own lives infused their fiction Writing with passionate intelligence of her own Gordon reveals that these renegade writers inspired a new breed of women who wished to change a world locked in war violence exploitation and sexual abuse Gordon s biographies have always shown the indelible connection between life and art an intuitive exciting and revealing approach that has been highly praised In Outsiders she crafts nuanced portraits of Shelley Bront Eliot Schreiner and Woolf naming each of these writers as prodigy visionary outlaw orator and explorer and shows how they came they saw and they left us changed Today following the tsunami of women s protest at widespread abuse we do more than read them we listen and live with their astonishing bravery and eloquence

Literature, Cinema and Politics 1930-1945 Lara Feigel, 2010-07-16 This book tells the story of a generation of writers who were passionately engaged with politics and with cinema exploring the rise and fall of a distinct tradition of cinematic literature Dismayed by the rise of fascism in Europe and by the widening gulf separating the classes at home these writers turned to cinema as a popular and hard hitting art form Lara Feigel crosses boundaries between high modernism and social realism and between high and popular culture bringing together Virginia Woolf with W H Auden Elizabeth Bowen with John Sommerfield Sergei Eisenstein with Gracie Fields The book ends in the Second World War an era when the bombs and searchlights rendered everyday life cinematic Feigel interrogates the genres she maps drawing on cultural theories from the 1920s onwards to investigate the nature of the cinematic and the literary While it was not possible directly to transfer the techniques of the screen to the page any more than it was possible to go over to the working classes the attempts nonetheless reveal a fascinating intersection of the visual and the verbal the political and the aesthetic In reading between the frames of an unexplored literary tradition this book redefines 1930s and wartime literature and politics Palgrave

Editing Woolf Eleanor McNeese, Sara Veglahn, 2018-08-30 Woolf Editing Editing Woolf focuses on Woolf as editor both of her own work and of the Hogarth Press and on editing Woolf on the conflation of textual and theoretical criticism of Woolf's oeuvre Since many contributors are editors creative writers and critics contributions highlight the intersections of those three roles The essays variously addressed the granite of close textual reading and the rainbow of theoretical approaches to Woolf's writings Several more flexible versions of editing emerge in the papers that discuss adaptations of Woolf to film theatre and music Brenda Silver's contribution in memory of Julia Briggs opens the volume and James Haule's contribution concludes it     Radical Larkin J.
