Report of the Dominion Experimental Farms Canada. Dept. of Agriculture. Experimental Farms, 1896 Partisans, Guerillas, and Irregulars Steven D. Smith, Clarence R. Geier, 2019-06-25 Essays that explore the growing field of conflict archaeology Within the last twenty years the archaeology of conflict has emerged as a valuable subdiscipline within anthropology contributing greatly to our knowledge and understanding of human conflict on a global scale Although archaeologists have clearly demonstrated their utility in the study of large scale battles and sites of conventional warfare such as camps and forts conflicts involving asymmetric guerilla or irregular warfare are largely missing from the historical record Partisans Guerillas and Irregulars Historical Archaeology of Asymmetric Warfare presents recent examples of how historical archaeology can contribute to a better understanding of asymmetric warfare The volume introduces readers to this growing study and to its historic importance Contributors illustrate how the wide range of traditional and new methods and techniques of historiography and archaeology can be applied to expose critical actions sacrifices and accomplishments of competing groups representing opposing philosophies and ways of life which are otherwise lost in time The case studies offered cover significant events in American and world history including the French and Indian War the American Revolution Indian wars in the Southeast and Southwest the Civil War Reconstruction Prohibition and World War II All such examples used here took place at a local or regional level and several were singular events within a much larger and more complex historic movement While retained in local memory or tradition and despite their potential importance they are poorly and incompletely addressed in the historic record Furthermore these conflicts took place between groups of significantly different cultural and military traditions and capabilities most taking on a David vs Goliath character further shaping the definition of asymmetric warfare

The California Highway Patrolman, 1966 The Power of Choice Patricia Ann

Rini, 2008-04 When her drunken husband threatened to kill her and her children and fired a shotgun in her house Patricia Rini fled with a few meager possessions no self esteem and no means to feed her children She was so desolate that she prayed for her own death as a solution Her prayers were answered in a different way She learned to fight back and to heal She started her life over learned to support her family joined a twelve step program and doggedly struggled to overcome her codependency She attended hundreds of A A and Al Anon meetings She regained her faith in God She married a reformed sober alcoholic began counseling and boarding alcoholics in her home and became a highly sought after speaker Patricia suffered the loss of family members and many friends to alcoholism and codependency but it was the murder of her husband that truly tested the fabric of the program she had learned through trial by fire She spent nine years recording her moving and inspirational story to help others who suffer to recover and lead meaningful joyful lives Patricia Ann Rini has spent the last 25 years sharing her experience strength and hope with men and women who suffer from addictions and codependency She has recently completed a workbook as a companion to The Power of Choice titled The Restoration of Mind Body and Spirit Breaking the Chains of Addictions Upon release of the workbook slated for release in May 2008 Patricia plans to begin teaching the material Patricia and her husband Bob have eight children together and reside in Tennessee
