Education Under Occupation Pierre W. Orelus,2007-01-01 In this book the author critically analyzes the ongoing and wide ranging effects of colonialism and globalization on the poor especially on those living in the Third World The author s overarching argument is that colonization was not merely about the conquest of foreign lands but it was also about the ideological monitoring of the colonized s mind often maintained through western hegemonic texts and institutional apparatus such as schools and churches Analyzing and situating colonialism in the context of western neo liberal policy of occupation and economic political and ideological dominations the author thus demonstrates how through schools and the mass corporate media neocolonized and occupied subjects have been mis educated to internalize and reproduce old western values beliefs and norms at the expense of their own Publisher

The Political Economy of NGOs Jude L. Fernando,2011-07-08 This book explores the paradoxical relationship between NGOs and capitalism showing that supposedly progressive organisations often promote essentially the same policies and ideas as existing governments It examines how a diverse group of NGOs have shaped state formation in Bangladesh and Sri Lanka It argues that rather than influencing state formation for the better NGOs have been integrated into the capitalist system and their language adopted to give traditional exploitative social relations a transformative appearance This enlightening study will give pause to those who see NGOs as drivers of true social change and will encourage students of development studies to make a deeper analysis of state formation
