Estate Regeneration and Its Discontents Paul Watt,2021-03-31 Public housing estates are disappearing from London s skyline in the name of regeneration while new mixed tenure developments are arising in their place This richly illustrated book provides a vivid interdisciplinary account of the controversial urban policy of demolition and rebuilding amid London s housing crisis and the polarisation between the city s haves and have nots Drawing on extensive fieldwork and interviews with over 180 residents living in some of the capital s most deprived areas Watt shows the dramatic ways that estate regeneration is reshaping London fuelling socio spatial inequalities via state led gentrification Foregrounding resident experiences and perspectives both before and during regeneration he examines class place belonging home and neighbourhood and argues that the endless regeneration process results in degeneration displacement and fragmented communities

Relationships Grace Gbajabiamila,2015-05-15 The writing of this book was inspired by a divine revelation of what is important as we sojourn on Earth PEOPLE It is possible to miss this great truth as the clamour for things increases daily on Earth Yet apart from your investment in a relationship with your Maker the only worthwhile investment with eternal value is being an investor in people We exist to relate first with God and next with Man No man is an island and no man can exist by themselves and for themselves alone Finally it is knowing that the only thing you will exit this world with is the eternal record of what you did with your relationships
