'Every Mother's Son is Guilty' Chris Owen, 2016 This is a marvellous contribution by Chris Owen to the understanding of the role the Western Australian police force played in the colonial expansion into the Kimberley district of Western Australia Senator Patrick Dodson Yawuru Elder Chris Owen provides a compelling account of policing in the Kimberley district from 1882 when police were established in the district until 1905 when Dr Walter Roth s controversial Royal Commission into the treatment of Aboriginal people was released Owen s achievement is to take elements of all the pre existing historiography and test them against a rigorous archival investigation In doing so a fuller understanding of the complex social economic and political changes occurring in Western Australia during the period are exposed The policing of

Aboriginal people changed from one of protection under law to one of punishment and control The subsequent violence of colonial settlement and the associated policing and criminal justice system that developed often of questionable legality was what Royal Commissioner Roth termed a brutal and outrageous state of affairs Every Mother s Son is Guilty is a significant contribution to Australian and colonial criminal justice history Subject History Aboriginal Studies Criminal Justice policing

The Lion that Didn't Roar Nigel Davidson,2016-10-06 In 2017 it will be Australia s turn to chair the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme KP an international organisation set up to regulate the trade in diamonds Diamonds are a symbol of love purchased to celebrate marriage and it is therefore deeply ironic that the diamond trade has become linked with warfare and human rights violations committed in African producer countries such as Sierra Leone the Democratic Republic of Congo and more recently Zimbabwe and Angola In their quest for diamonds or by using diamonds to purchase weapons armed groups in these countries have engaged in recruiting child soldiers amputating limbs and committing rape and murder In response to the problem the international community non governmental organisations and key industry players such as De Beers combined forces to create the Kimberley Process in 2002 The KP uses an export certificate system to distinguish the legitimate rough diamond trade from so called blood diamonds which are also known as conflict diamonds This book considers the extent to which the KP supported by other agencies at the international and national levels has been effective in achieving its mandate In so doing it presents an original model derived from the domain of regulatory theory the Dual Networked Pyramid as a means of describing the operation of the system and suggesting possible improvements that might be made to it

Reforming Mining Law Christian Matabaro, 2019-03-22 The Democratic Republic of Congo is endowed with immense mineral wealth Its minerals include cobalt copper diamond gold iron manganese tantalum tin tungsten and zinc Yet the contribution of mineral abundance to the country's economic development is poor The Congolese mining sector was initiated in 1905 with the creation of OKIMO Office des Mines du Nord de Kilo Moto and UMHK Union Minière du Haut Katanga The rapid development of mining companies improved economic growth until 1973 when President Mobutu introduced a variety of inadequate economic policies including zairianization and radicalization that slowed down economic development The actual mining code was adopted in 2002 to enhance a mining sector that already collapsed This study suggests a variety of mechanisms and measures that are meant to energize the Congolese mining sector and hence allow the country to benefit entirely from its mineral abundance
