Howard, 2003 The Acts and Monuments of John Foxe George Townsend, 2025-08-25 Reprint of the original first published in 1843 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Acts and Monuments of John Foxe John Foxe, George Townsend, 1843

The Journal of John Jourdain, 1608-1617, Describing His Experiences in Arabia, India, and the Malay Archipelago John Jourdain, 1905 John Jourdain died 1619 was a British captain in the service of the East India Company He joined the company as a factor in 1607 and first sailed on its Fourth Voyage to India making stops along the way at the Cape of Good Hope Socotra and other Indian Ocean islands and Aden and Mocha in Yemen before arriving at Surat The Fourth Voyage consisted of two ships the Union and the Ascension A pinnacle was built and added to the two ships during a stop at Table Bay The voyage encountered many problems and the ships never made it back to England Bad weather in the Indian Ocean separated the vessels and hostilities with the Portuguese and with the natives often broke out making the voyage the worst in the company's early history After failing to secure a trading post in India and dismayed with the time and gifts they wasted on Mughal officials the British headed back to the Red Sea where they resorted to seizing and ransoming Indian ships near Mocha Jourdain was later sent on a mission to Sumatra this time to challenge the Dutch monopoly on trade in the Spice Islands The Journal of John Jourdain 1608 1617 Describing his Experiences in Arabia India and the Malay Archipelago is the author's narrative of the nine years he was away while serving in the East India Company The book begins with a lengthy introduction summarizing and elucidating the events that Jourdain chronicled in his journal It begins on March 25 1608 when he left the Downs on the southeast coast of England and ends on June 19 1617 when his journal ceased with a final entry written near Dungeness on the way to the Downs On a later journey Jourdain was shot by a Dutch sniper in Patani India and died from his wounds in July 1619 The journal entries vary in length and substance from brief descriptions of the weather conditions at sea to much longer accounts of events and places Lists of authorities bibliographies and appendices of people and places are given at the end of the book The Kingdom of Heaven; what is It? Edward Burbidge, 1879 The King's Keeper Gary Everett, 2019-03-29 When I think of all my possessions to include any wealth in savings or retirement funds my home and cars my health the strength of my body and mind all that I have accomplished my talents titles or degrees is there anything that I can claim aside from the magnificent grace of God Anything For me there is nothing that I can claim Since I came into this world with nothing and will leave with nothing I am but a steward of God the One who owns it all I am the King's keeper and accountable to the King This King is my precious Savior Jesus To gain a better understanding of my role as steward it is necessary for me to renew my mind and reflect upon what God's Word says about stewardship To prepare for His return the King's Keeper will help me discover 1 those characteristics of the life of a good steward that are pleasing to the King and that will help me demonstrate faithful service without reason for question 2 how I can steward God's creation 3 how to steward myself and understand the proper alignment of the body soul and spirit for kingdom service 4 how I can steward my time so that it is pleasing to my heavenly Father being all about His business 5 how I can take an honest look at my attitude and behavior concerning my possessions and come into alignment with the desires of the King 6 how I can steward God's Word and be found faithfully administering the mysteries of the Word of God in love always giving the glory to Him 7 how I can steward God's manifold grace and be found fully operating in the gifts in which I have been given for kingdom service 8 how I can engage my community as a kingdom representative and 9 how I can tend to the precious relationships in which I have been trusted A steward must always be ready for the master's return and the King may return at any time

The Ten commandments and the Lord's prayer Ferdinand Schureman Schenck, 1902 The Sacred Books of the East Described and Examined: Epics poems and Puranas: The Ramayana. The Mahabharata. The Vishnu Purana. 1st ed. 1896, 1898 The Invasion of India by Alexander the Great as Described by Arrian, Q. Curtius, Diodoros, Plutarch and Justin, 1896 Visions of the King Timothy Raymond, Timothy Raymond stresses that the last book in Scripture is not a revelation of beasts horns and other symbols it is the Revelation of Jesus Christ the One who willingly placed Himself on the altar to save us from our sins thoroughly defeated the devil and loosened his mortal grip on our race and promises to culminate this victory by coming back to take His faithful followers home Many avid students of Bible prophecy will consider Visions of the King a fascinating contribution to this literary genre The intricate manner in which he highlights scriptural parallels that may be new to even seasoned Adventist laypeople and scholars will prompt readers to put on their thinking caps and prayerfully evaluate these intriguing connections Raymond's premise is Jesus Christ's heavenly coronation as King which must occur before He returns to earth to culminate His victory over the father of evil The author often emphasizes the biblical pattern of celestial events instigating terrestrial counterparts with our Lord's inauguration as High Priest and Pentecost being a prime example One of the more exciting studies within these pages is the parable of the ten virgins which Raymond found to be significantly rooted in the Old Testament The author hopes that those who invest some of their time into studying these themes will achieve optimal alertness and fullness of the Holy Spirit thus being thoroughly prepared to attend the wedding feast of the Groom
