The King Of Spades:

The lover's dictionary Lover,1903      Fortune Telling by Cards P.R.S Foli,2023-01-30 This goddess Fortune frustrates single handed the plans of a hundred learned men In this saying the Latin author has given us the key to all the restless striving to search out the Unknown and the Unknowable which marks our own age just as it has marked previous periods in history which we are apt to look back upon as being but little removed from the dark ages Of all the methods by which men and women seek to penetrate into the mysteries of Fate and Futurity Cartomancy is one that can claim the distinction of having swayed the human mind from prehistoric times right down to this twentieth century of ours It may be that this book will fall into the hands of those who agree with the words of L Estrange there needs no more than impudence on the one side and a superstitious credulity on the other to the setting up of a Fortune teller This attitude of cynical superiority is sometimes genuine but in many cases if we could read what lies beneath the surface we should find that it is but a cloak worn to conceal a lurking fear an almost irritated condition of mind born of a half confessed faith in the power at which it is so easy to scoff

With an Extensive Explanation Relative to Love, Courtship and Matrimony, Etc NORWOOD GIPSEY WHEEL OF FORTUNE.,1873 Modern Magic: A Practical Treatise on the Art of Conjuring Maximilian Schele de Vere,Professor Hoffmann,2011-01-01 Among the various branches of the conjuror s art none will better repay the labour of the student whether artist or amateur than the magic of cards It has the especial advantage of being in a great measure independent of time and place The materials for half its mysteries are procurable at five minutes notice in every home circle and even in the case of those tricks for which specially prepared cards etc are requisite the necessary appliances cost little and are easily portable two virtues not too common in magical apparatus Further the majority of card tricks are dependent mainly on personal address and dexterity and as such will always be highly esteemed by connoisseurs in the art Before very large audiences indeed the spectators being at a distance from the performer much of the effect of a card trick is lost which is probably the reason that of late years tricks of this class with a few exceptions have been rather neglected by professors and that many feats which in the times of Conus and Comte were numbered among the sensations of the day are now almost entirely forgotten We shall endeavour in the following pages after explaining the principles of sleight of hand applicable to cards and giving instructions for some of the best of the more commonplace feats to revive the recollection and we hope the practice of some of these brilliant performances The Cards The adept in sleight of hand should accustom himself to the use of every description of cards as frequently none but the ordinary full sized playing cards may be available Where however the choice is open to him he should use in the actual performance of tricks cards of a smaller and thinner make The common French cards answer the purpose very well Among cards of English make some of the best for the purpose are the small cards of the French pattern made by De La Rue Co for use in France and those known as the Tankerville cards both imported by Peck Snyder 124 Nassau Street New York City which are thin well made and of small size but of the English pattern In any case it is well to use only the piquet pack of thirty two cards the twos threes fours fives and sixes being removed the complete whist pack being inconveniently bulky for sleight of hand purposes
