The Knife Edge of Experience Rosemary Haughton, 1972 Immortal Diamond Richard Rohr, 2013-01-22 Dissolve the distractions of ego to find our authentic selves in God In his bestselling book Falling Upward Richard Rohr talked about ego or the False Self and how it gets in the way of spiritual maturity But if there s a False Self is there also a True Self What is it How is it found Why does it matter And what does it have to do with the spiritual journey This book likens True Self to a diamond buried deep within us formed under the intense pressure of our lives that must be searched for uncovered separated from all the debris of ego that surrounds it In a sense True Self must like Jesus be resurrected and that process is not resuscitation but transformation Shows how to navigate spiritually difficult terrain with clear vision and tools to uncover our True Selves Written by Father Richard Rohr the bestselling author of Falling Upward Examines the fundamental issues of who we are and helps us on our path of spiritual maturity Immortal Diamond whose title is taken from a line in a Gerard Manley Hopkins poem explores the deepest questions of identity spirituality and meaning in Richard Rohr s inimitable style discusses both how these conceptions are related to each other and how they fit into a wider philosophical context His sophisticated and accessible account of the phenomenological philosophy of Husserl and the existential phenomenology of Heidegger will be of wide interest to students and specialists in these areas while analytic philosophers of mind will be interested by the detailed parallels which he draws with a number of concerns of the analytic philosophical tradition

Phenomenology and Human Science Research Today Massimiliano Tarozzi, 2010 Systems Thinking for a Turbulent World Anthony Hodgson, 2019-11-05 Systems Thinking for a Turbulent World will help practitioners in any field of change engage more effectively in transformative innovation Such innovation addresses the paradigm shift needed to meet the diverse unfolding global challenges facing us today often summed up as the Anthropocene Fragmentation of local and global societies is escalating and this is aggravating vicious cycles To heal the rifts we need to reintroduce the human element into our understandings whether the context is civic or scientific and strengthen truth seeking in decision making Aided by appropriate concepts and methods this healing will enable a switch from reaction to anticipation even in the face of discontinuous change and high uncertainty The outcome is to privilege the positive human skills for collaborative navigation through uncertainty over the disjointed rationality of mechanism and artificial intelligence which increasingly alienates us The reader in search of new ways of thinking will be introduced to concepts new to systems thinking that integrate systems thinking and futures thinking The concept of anticipatory present moment APM serves as a basis for learning the cognitive skills that better enable navigation through turbulent times A key personal and team practice is participative repatterning which is the basis for transformative innovation This practice is aided by new methods of visual facilitation The reader is guided through the unfolding of the ideas and practices with a narrative based on the metaphor of search portrayed in the tradition of ox herding found in traditional Far Eastern consciousness practice Elemental Architecture Phillip James Tabb, 2018-10-31 Elemental Architecture presents a new and refreshing approach to sustainable architectural practice Going beyond the standard performance based and quantitative sustainable measures it incorporates a broader framework of considerations including the more poetic and noetic possibilities of environmental design The book is structured around the ancient Greek and medieval alchemists system of the Five Temperaments fire earth air water and ether Phillip James Tabb examines how these elements produce both positive and negative environmental forces which have an impact on architectural design from drinking water and fresh air to torrential floods and tornados He shows how responding to or enhancing these forces can help us to create a more sustainable healthy and purposeful architecture To illustrate this each chapter draws on seminal contemporary works of architecture from Peter Zumthor's Bruder Klaus Field Chapel to Frank Lloyd Wright's masterpiece at Fallingwater These examples are accompanied by over a hundred high quality illustrations Expanding the discussion of sustainability to include phenomenological as well as qualitative considerations Elemental Architecture is ideal for students and researchers with an interest in sustainable architecture and architectural theory

Industries ,1889 The Human Experience of Time Charles M. Sherover,2001 First published in 1975 and still without equal The Human Experience of Time provides a thorough review of the concept of time in the Western philosophic tradition Encompassing a wide range of writings from the Book of Genesis and the classical thinkers to the work of such twentieth century philosophers as Collingwood and McKeon all with introductory essays by the editor this classic anthology offers a synoptic view of the changing philosophic notions of time The Construction of the Balance According to Underlying Scientific Principles and According to Its Special Purpose Ernst Brauer,Franz Lawaczeck,1909 Backpacker ,2000-12 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Proceedings of the Institution of Electrical Engineers Institution of Electrical Engineers,1913 Vols for 1970 79 include an annual special issue called IEE reviews Journal ,1913 Includes annual report of its council 1941 48 in pt 1 Journal of the Society of Telegraph Engineers and of Electricians ,1913 Includes the Society s list of officers members and associates Journal of the Institution of Electrical Engineers ,1913 Models of the Self Shaun Gallagher,2013-10-22 A long history of inquiry about human nature and the self stretches from the ancient tradition of Socratic self knowledge in the context of ethical life to contemporary discussions of brain function in cognitive science It begins with a conflict among the ancients On one view which comes to be represented most clearly by Aristotle the issue is settled in terms of a composite and very complex human nature Who I am is closely tied to my embodied existence The other view found as early as the Pythagoreans and developed in the writings of Plato Augustine and Descartes held that genuine humanness is not the result of an integration of lower functions but a purification of those functions in favour of a liberating spirituality The animal elements are excluded from the human essence The modern debate on the problem of the self although owing much to the insights of Locke and Hume can still be situated within the context of the two schools of ancient thought and this has led many to despair over the lack of apparent progress in this problem Today of course we often tend to look to science rather than philosophy to develop our understanding of a wide range of fundamental issues To what extent is the problem of the self a scientific issue Can insights from the study of neuropsychology and cognitive development in infancy provide a new perspective Can the study of schizophrenia and dissociative identity disorders tell us anything about the nature of human self consciousness Many would answer yes to the above questions but then is it not also the case that the study of exceptional self actualised human experience is equally relevant And can the phenomenological tradition dedicated to the systematic study of human experience and contemporary analytic approaches in philosophy help us out of some of the impasses that have bedevilled the empiricist tradition MODELS
