Kafka Sarah Rachelle Roger,2017 Sarah Roger investigates Jorge Luis Borges s development as an author in light of Franz Kafka s influence and in consideration of Borges s relationship with his father a failed author She explores how reading Kafka helped Borges mediate and make productive use of his own relationship with his father The Medieval Presence in

Modernist Literature Jonathan Ullyot,2016 This book rethinks the influence that early medieval studies and Grail narratives had on modernist literature Through examining several canonical works from Henry James The Golden Bowl to Samuel Beckett s Molloy Ullyot argues that these texts serve as a continuation of the Grail legend inspired by medieval scholarship

Kafka and Cultural Zionism Iris Bruce,2007 Kafka and Cultural Zionism is an illumination of the individual Jewish identity of this major modernist German author Through a thorough examination of Kafka s life his influences and his writings Iris Bruce makes a case for Kafka s interest in Zionism and demonstrates the presence of Jewish themes and motifs in Kafka s literary works In recognizing this essential part of Kafka s individual voice Bruce hopes to provide a new perspective on Kafka and his writings that allows the reader to find the humor playfulness rebelliousness and challenge that can be overlooked if the reader expects to find a Kafka who is disengaged from his ethnic and cultural identity as well as the politics of his age Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine Lost in the American City J. Forget Baudrillard? Chris Rojek, Professor Bryan S Turner, Bryan Turner, 2002-11-01 Without doubt Jean Baudrillard is one of the most important figures currently working in the area of sociology and cultural studies but his writings infuriate as many people as they intoxicate This collection provides a wide ranging measured assessment of Baudrillard's work The contributors examine Baudrillard's relation to consumption modernity postmodernity social theory feminism politics and culture They attempt to steer a clear course between the hype which Baudrillard himself has done much to generate and the solid value of his startling thoughts Baudrillard's ideas and style of expression provide a challenge to established academic ways of proceeding and thinking The book explores this challenge and speculates on the reason for the extreme responses to Baudrillard's work The appeal of Baudrillard's arguments is clearly discussed and his place in contemporary social theory is shrewdly assessed Baudrillard emerges as a chameleon figure but one who is obsessed with the central themes of style hypocrisy seduction simulation and fatality Although these themes abound in postmodern thought they are also evident in a certain strand of modernist thought one which embraces the writings of Baudelaire and Nietzsche Baudrillard's protestation is that he is not a postmodernist is taken seriously in this collection The balanced and accessible style of the contributions and the fairness and rigour of the assessments make this book of pressing interest to students of sociology philosophy and cultural studies

Mannerist Fiction William Donoghue, 2014-03-21 In Mannerist Fiction William Donoghue re conceptualizes the history of formalism in western literature Rather than presuming that literary experimentation with form distorting space and time began in the twentieth century with Modernism Donoghue identifies the age of Copernicus as the crucible for the first experiments in spatial deformation which appeared in mannerist painting and literature With wide ranging erudition Mannerist Fiction connects these literary and pictorial developments and traces their repetition and evolution over the next five hundred years Time and again Donoghue explains scientific and literary paradigm shifts have occurred in parallel Rabelais and Jonson wrote in the aftermath of changes in the western sense of space wrought by Copernicus and the voyages of discovery Jonathan Swift and the Marquis de Sade in the age of Newton Thomas Pynchon in the age of Einstein With his analysis Donoghue establishes disfigurement and deformation as perennial sources of literary fascination

Atlantic Afterlives in Contemporary Fiction S. Ahlberg, 2016-04-08 Atlantic Afterlives in Contemporary Fiction offers fresh readings of what has been called transatlantic literature In selected twentieth and twenty first century texts it discovers a shift from oceanic place based knowledge to an atmospheric placeless circulation of information Consonant with the displacements of the Information Age this book reads contemporary narrative as it imagines and navigates today's virtual spaces An important conclusion of the book is that intellectual resources are finite and should be used sustainably Thus arguing against a conventional comparative approach this book proposes reading practices that resist the tendency toward an oversupply of reworked literary contexts that seems bent on matching the reach of the World Wide Web Instead the book reimagines place as a practice in the way it is communicated and narrated Ultimately this book empowers the reader to reimagine a future for narrative in the Information Age Recovered Legacies Keith Lawrence, Floyd Cheung, 2005-07-29

Rediscovering the writings of early Asian America The Material, the Real, and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow, 2004-01-01 In The Material the Real and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow explores the fascinating interrelation of subjectivity materiality and representation in the poetry and related texts of four modern French writers Arthur Rimbaud Guillaume Apollinaire Francis Ponge and Jacques R da She demonstrates the richness and the relevance of modern French poetry for today s readers putting contemporary thought to work on the fractured self emerging in the post Baudelairian lyric Harrow addresses the widely perceived marginalization of poetry in the writing theory debate demonstrating that the emergence of a self at once shaped by and straining against material historical subjective and cultural impediments reveals fertile relations between theory and poetry Where purer forms of postmodernist thinking have stressed the dissolution and dispersal of the human subject new approaches informed by cultural studies autobiography theory and gender studies work to recover fictions of experience and retrieve submerged narratives of the self Probing the activity of textual self recovery among the debris of history and fantasy visuality and desire and culture and corporeality The Material the Real and the Fractured Self imparts something of the startling beauty and the raw urgency of poetry writing across the broad modern period Revista de estudios hispánicos University of Alabama. Department of Romance Languages, 1992 Notable Latino Writers , 2006 Surveys approximately 125 major U S Latino writers and world Spanish language writers translated into English who have contributed to the rich heritage of Latino and Hispanic literature Capitalism and Schizophrenia in the Later Novels of Louis-Ferdinand Céline Greg Hainge, 2001 Re examining the works of France s most controversial of literary figures this book contends that Louis Ferdinand C line s pronouncements on the importance of style must be taken seriously if an understanding of those works is to be reached Capitalism and Schizophrenia in the Later Novels of Louis Ferdinand C line provides a major reconsideration of the greater part of the oeuvre of this too often neglected author Leaving behind the symbolic capital that the name C line accrued during the Second World War this study looks at the works written around and after this period in order to understand the importance of their revolutionary aesthetic not only for their genesis but also for their very content The approach taken is unashamedly theoretical which allows this study to provide insights not only into the works of C line but also into those of the French thinkers Deleuze and Guattari whose thought it is argued here can only be apprehended through application Encyclopedia of Latin American History and Culture Barbara A.
