The Lanes Of Limerick:

The lanes of Limerick John Williams, 1999 Angela's Ashes Frank McCourt, 1998-12-17 A Pulitzer Prize winning 1 New York Times bestseller Angela's Ashes is Frank McCourt's masterful memoir of his childhood in Ireland now with a new introduction by Patrick Radden Keefe When I look back on my childhood I wonder how I managed to survive at all It was of course a miserable childhood the happy childhood is hardly worth your while Worse than the ordinary miserable childhood is the miserable Irish childhood and worse yet is the miserable Irish Catholic childhood So begins the luminous memoir of Frank McCourt born in Depression era Brooklyn to recent Irish immigrants and raised in the slums of Limerick Ireland Frank's mother Angela has no money to feed the children since Frank's father Malachy rarely works and when he does he drinks his wages Yet Malachy exasperating irresponsible and beguiling does nurture in Frank an appetite for the one thing he can provide a story Frank lives for his father's tales of Cuchulain who saved Ireland and of the Angel on the Seventh Step who brings his mother babies Perhaps it is story that accounts for Frank's survival Wearing rags for diapers begging a pig's head for Christmas dinner and gathering coal from the roadside to light a fire Frank endures poverty near starvation and the casual cruelty of relatives and neighbors yet lives to tell his tale with eloquence exuberance and remarkable forgiveness Angela's Ashes imbued on every page with Frank McCourt's astounding humor and compassion is a glorious book that bears all the marks of a classic

Popular Catholicism in 20th-Century Ireland Síle de Cléir, 2017-10-05 For much of the 20th century Catholics in Ireland spent significant amounts of time engaged in religious activities This book documents their experience in Limerick city between the 1920s and 1960s exploring the connections between that experience and the wider culture of an expanding and modernising urban environment Síle de Cléir discusses topics including ritual activities in many contexts the church the home the school the neighbourhood and the workplace The supernatural belief underpinning these activities is also important along with creative forms of resistance to the high levels of social control exercised by the clergy in this environment De Clir uses a combination of in depth interviews and historical ethnographic sources to reconstruct the day to day religious experience of Limerick city people during the period studied This material is enriched by ideas drawn from anthropological studies of religion while perspectives from both history and ethnology also help to contextualise the discussion With its unique focus on everyday experience and combination of a traditional worldview with the modernising city of Limerick all set against the backdrop of a newly independent Ireland Popular Catholicism in 20th century Ireland presents a fascinating new perspective on 20th century Irish social and religious history Back to the Present, Forward to the Past International Association for the Study of Irish Literatures. Teacher Man Frank McCourt,2005-11-15 Nearly a decade ago Frank McCourt became an unlikely star when at the age of sixty six he burst onto the literary scene with Angela s Ashes the Pulitzer Prize winning memoir of his childhood in Limerick Ireland Then came Tis his glorious account of his early years in New York Now here at last is McCourt s long awaited book about how his thirty year teaching career shaped his second act as a writer Teacher Man is also an urgent tribute to teachers everywhere In bold and spirited prose featuring his irreverent wit and heartbreaking honesty McCourt records the trials triumphs and surprises he faces in public high schools around New York City His methods anything but conventional McCourt creates a lasting impact on his students through imaginative assignments he instructs one class to write An Excuse Note from Adam or Eve to God singalongs featuring recipe ingredients as lyrics and field trips imagine taking twenty nine rowdy girls to a movie in Times Square McCourt struggles to find his way in the classroom and spends his evenings drinking with writers and dreaming of one day putting his own story to paper Teacher Man shows McCourt developing his unparalleled ability to tell a great story as five days a week five periods per day he works to gain the attention and respect of unruly hormonally charged or indifferent adolescents McCourt s rocky marriage his failed attempt to get a Ph

D at Trinity College Dublin and his repeated firings due to his propensity to talk back to his superiors ironically lead him to New York's most prestigious school Stuyvesant High School where he finally finds a place and a voice. Doggedness, he says, is not as glamorous as ambition or talent or intellect or charm but still the one thing that got me through the days and nights. For McCourt, storytelling itself is the source of salvation and in Teacher Man, the journey to redemption and literary fame is an exhilarating adventure.
