The Language Of Literature World Literature:

The Language of Literature McDougal Littell, 2001 The Language of Literature ,2002 The Languages of World Literature Achim Hölter, 2024-03-04 This volume opens the series of papers presented at the Vienna Congress of AILC ICLA 2016 beginning with eight keynotes Thirty four further papers are dedicated to the central theme of the conference the linguistic side of world literature under different focal points The volume further contains five roundtables the papers of a workshop of the UNESCO memory of the worlds programme a presentation of the avldigital de platform as well as several bibliographically enriched overviews of the special lexicography of comparative literature up to date versions of the ICLA publications and an example of multiple translations of a famous modern classic The Language of Literature ,2006 World Literature ,2002 World Literature, World Culture Karen-Margrethe Simonsen, Jakob Stougaard-Nielsen, 2008-12-31 In a global age where people goods and cultural products transcend the boundaries of geography and temporality as never before it is only natural that literary and cultural studies turn their attention to Goethe s nineteenth century notion of a Weltliteratur Offering their own Twenty First Century perspectives across generations nationalities and disciplines the contributors to this anthology explore the idea of world literatue for what it may add of new connections and itineraries to the study of literature and culture today Covering a vast historical material from witness accounts of the fall of Constantinople to Hari Kunzru s contemporary representations of multicultural London these essays by a diverse group of scholars examine the pioneers of world literature Juan Andres Morell Goethe and Hugo Meltzl and the roles played by translation migration and literature institutions in the circulation and reception of both national and cosmopolitan literatures They illustrate how literary analysis can be enriched by attention to the border crossing itineraries followed by migrants writers publishers translators and texts thereby yielding new discoveries about writers and artists such as Catullus Manuel Vicent Jean Luc Godard Dubravka Ugresic Derek Walcott Cabral do Nascimento Thomas Pynchon Asger Jorn and Louis Paul Boon The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2022-09-30 This fully updated new edition of The Routledge Companion to World Literature contains ten brand new chapters on topics such as premodern world literature migration studies world history artificial intelligence global Englishes remediation crime fiction Lusophone literature Middle Eastern literature and oceanic studies Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of world literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of world literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in world literature including gender politics and ethics and a global perspective on the politics of world literature Comprehensive yet accessible this book is ideal as an introduction to world literature or for those looking to extend their knowledge of this essential field An Ecology of World Literature Alexander Beecroft, 2015-03-03 What constitutes a nation s literature How do literatures of different countries interact with one another In this groundbreaking study Alexander Beecroft develops a new way of thinking about world literature Drawing on a series of examples and case studies the book ranges from ancient epic to the contemporary fiction of Roberto Bola o and Amitav Ghosh Moving across literary ecologies of varying sizes from small societies to the planet as a whole the environments in which literary texts are produced and circulated An Ecology of World Literature places in dialogue scholarly perspectives on ancient and modern western and non western texts navigating literary study into new and uncharted territory A History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2024-05-29 A History of World Literature is a fully revised and expanded edition of The Routledge Concise History of World Literature 2012 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to world literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism decoloniality ecocriticism and book circulation Theo D haen in ten tightly argued but richly detailed chapters examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe s concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature and how world literature is taught around the world By examining how world literature is studied around the globe this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation postcolonial and decoloniality studies and materialist approaches and to anyone with an interest in these or related topics The Language of Literature , 2006 Bulgarian Literature as World Literature Mihaela P. Harper, Dimitar Kambourov, 2020-11-12 Bulgarian Literature as World Literature examines key aspects and manifestations of 20th and 21st century Bulgarian literature by way of the global literary landscape The first volume to bring together in English the perspectives of prominent writers translators and scholars of Bulgarian literature and culture this long overdue collection identifies correlations between national and world aesthetic ideologies and literary traditions It situates Bulgarian literature within an array of contexts and foregrounds a complex interplay of changing internal and external forces These forces shaped not only the first collaborative efforts at the turn of the 20th century to insert Bulgarian literature into the world s literary repository but also the work of contemporary Bulgarian diaspora authors Mapping histories geographies economies and genetics the contributors assess the magnitudes and directions of such forces in order to articulate how a distinctly national minor literature produced for internal use and nearly invisible globally until the last decade transforms into world literature today Stefan Zweig and World Literature Birger Vanwesenbeeck, Mark H. Gelber, 2014 A new critical assessment of the works of the Austrian Jewish author in whom there has been a recent resurgence of interest from the perspective of world literature Dutch Interbellum Canons and World Literature A. Roland Holst, M. Nijhoff, J. Slauerhoff Theo D'haen, 2023-09-15 This text takes a wholly new look at a major early twentieth century Dutch poet and novelist from the perspective of world literature situating his work in both a national and a world literary context as measured against contemporaries and near contemporaries such as Conrad Pound Brecht Segalen and Malraux

Exemplifying how an author from a minor literature may be a major world author this book considers the debates within World Literature regarding the classification of literatures as major and minor canon formation within Dutch literature Slauerhoff's position in the Dutch tradition as well as his contribution to world literature particularly focusing on his East Asian poems his East Asian novels and stories and his poetry and prose set in Latin America This book is a key read for scholars and students of comparative literature world literature European literature and Dutch literature Lucid in style innovative in approach surprisingly fresh qua topic this book opens new horizons for literary studies Polish Literature as World Literature Piotr Florczyk, K. A. Wisniewski, 2022-12-15 This carefully curated collection consists of 16 chapters by leading Polish and world literature scholars from the United States Canada Italy and of course Poland An historical approach gives readers a panoramic view of Polish authors and their explicit or implicit contributions to world literature Indeed the volume shows how Polish authors from Jan Kochanowski in the 16th century to the 2018 Nobel laureate Olga Tokarczuk have engaged with their foreign counterparts and other traditions active participants in the global literary network and the conversations of their day The volume features views of Polish literature and culture within theories of world literature and literary systems with a particular attention paid to the resurgence of the idea of the physical book as a cultural artifact This perspective is especially important since so much of today's global literary output stems from Anglophone perceptions of what constitutes literary quality and tastes The collection also sheds light on specific issues pertaining to Poland such as the idea of Polishness and global phenomena including social and economic advancement as well as ecological degradation Some of the authors discussed like the Romantic poet Adam Mickiewicz or the 1980 Nobel laureate Czesław Miłosz were renowned far beyond the borders of their country while others like the contemporary travel writer and novelist Andrzej Stasiuk embrace regionalism seeing as they do in their immediate surroundings a synecdoche of the world at large Nevertheless the picture of Polish literature and Polish authors that emerges from these articles is that of a diverse cosmopolitan cohort engaged in a mutually rewarding relationship with what the late French critic Pascale Casanova has called the world republic of letters What is World Literature? David Damrosch, 2003-03-30 INTRODUCTION Goethe coins a phrase PART ONE CIRCULATION Gilgamesh's quest The pope's blowgun From the old world to the whole world PART TWO TRANSLATION Love in the necropolis The afterlife of Mechthild von Magdeburg Kafka comes home PART THREE PRODUCTION English in the world Rigoberta Menchú in print The poisoned book CONCLUSION World enough and time African Literatures as World Literature Alexander Fyfe, Madhu Krishnan, 2022-11-03 The enormous success of writers such as Teju Cole and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie demonstrates that African literatures are now an international phenomenon But the apparent global legibility of a small number of mostly Anglophone writers in the diaspora raises the question of how literary producers from the continent both past and present have situated their work in relation to the world and the kinds of material networks to which this corresponds This collection shows how literatures from across the African continent engage with conceptualizations of the world in relation to local social and political issues Focusing on a wide variety of geographic historical and linguistic contexts the essays in this volume seek answers to the following questions What are the topographies of the world in different literary texts and traditions What are that world's limits boundaries and possibilities How do literary modes and forms such as realism narrative poetry or the political essay affect the presentation of worldliness What are the material networks of circulation that allow African literatures to become world literature African literatures it emerges do important theoretical work that speaks to the very core of world literary studies today

Entanglements: Envisioning World Literature from the Global South Andrea Scheurer, Maren Schulze-Engler, Frank Wegner, Jarula M. I.

Gremels, 2022-05-17 Entanglements Envisioning World Literature from the Global South scrutinizes current debates to bring historical and contemporary South South entanglements to the fore and to develop a new understanding of world literature in a multipolar world of globalized modernity The volume challenges established ideas of world literature by rethinking the concept along the notion of entanglements as a field of variously criss crossing relations of literary activity beyond the confines of literary canons cultural containers or national borders The collection presents individual case studies from a variety of language traditions that focus on particular literary relationships and practices across Africa the Americas Asia and Europe as well as new fictional poetical and theoretical conceptions of world literature in order to broaden our understanding of the multilateral entanglements within a widening communicative network that shape our globalized world

Crime Fiction as World Literature David Damrosch, Louise Nilsson, Theo D'haen, 2017-02-23 The first book to treat crime fiction in its full global intercultural and plurilingual dimensions taking the genre seriously as a participant in the international sphere of world literature

World Literature Decentered Ian Almond, 2021-07-13 What would world literature look like if we stopped referring to the West Starting with the provocative premise that the West is ten percent of the planet World Literature Decentered is the first book to decenter Eurocentric discourses of global literature and global history not just by deconstructing or historicizing them but by actively providing an alternative Looking at a series of themes across three literatures Mexico Turkey and Bengal the book examines hotels melancholy orientalism femicide and the ghost story in a series of literary traditions outside the West The non West the book argues is no fringe group or token minority in need of attention on the contrary it constitutes the overwhelming majority of this world

World Literature and the Postcolonial Elke Sturm-Trigonakis, 2020-05-18 This volume approaches literary representations of post and neocolonialism by combining their readings with respective theoretical configurations The aim is to cast light upon common characteristics of contemporary texts from around the world that deal with processes of colonization Based on the epistemic discourses of postimperialism postcolonialism globalization and world literature the volume's chapters bring together international scholars from various disciplines in the Humanities including Comparative Cultural Studies Slavic Romance German and African Studies The main concern of the contributions is to conceptualize an autonomous category of a world literature of the colonial going well beyond established classifications according to single languages or center periphery dichotomies
