The Kookaburra And Other Stories:

The Kookaburra and Other Stories Dal Burns, 2007-02 Wandering through the bush country of Australia at eighteen years of age I heard many tales as I sat by late night campfires Some were stories of Aborigine life some of the traveling carnival life Still others were of the white mans struggle to survive in this beautiful yet unforgiving land In this book I have taken some scraps of the Aborigine myths that I still remember and blended them together into full stories Other stories are my own written in that same style Where the one leaves off and the other begins is not important to me anymore Each story each character has a life of its own and I like to leave it at that These stories are not meant to be read alone They are meant to be read aloud by parents to children by children to parents and to anyone else you care about Spotty the Bower-Bird and

Other Stories Edward S Sorenson, 2021-11-09 In Spotty the Bower Bird and Other Stories Edward S Sorenson crafts a collection of enchanting tales that explore the intricate interplay between nature and human emotion Set against lush Australian landscapes these stories blend vivid descriptions with engaging narratives that reveal the rich tapestry of the avian world particularly focusing on the captivating behaviors of bowerbirds Sorenson s deft use of lyrical prose mirrors the delicate beauty of the Australian environment while simultaneously addressing themes of love creativity and the inherent connection between humanity and wildlife Edward S Sorenson an acclaimed naturalist and storyteller has spent decades immersed in the Australian wilderness cultivating a profound appreciation for its unique flora and fauna His experiences inform his writing as he deftly intertwines scientific observation with imaginative storytelling Sorenson s dedication to environmental conservation and education shines through inviting readers to reflect on their relationship with nature and the importance of preserving it for future generations Spotty the Bower Bird and Other Stories is an essential read for anyone who appreciates the beauty of storytelling infused with natural wonder Sorenson inspires curiosity and reverence for the animal kingdom making this collection a captivating addition to both children s and adult literature This book not only entertains but also educates ensuring its place in the hearts of readers who seek to find magic in the natural world

Waramingo's Boys and Other Stories Judith A. Lewis, 2007-08-17 A BOLD WALKABOUT ACROSS THE LAND OF VISION IMAGINATION AND REALITY The stories in this book are a combination of my imagination vision and experiences and contacts writes storyteller Judith A Lewis about this compelling collection of 65 stories about the Australian Outback the Pacific India and traveling They came to me in vivid detail and I felt compelled to share these insights into a richer way of looking at our relationship to the Earth Her theme is the journey across landscapes through cultures or into the vivid realms of visionary experience Lewis writes evocatively about traveling in spirit and body across Aboriginal and cultural terrains from meeting kangaroo spirits to long lost fathers But she writes with equal insight and warmth about the enigmas of the heart its secrets joys aspirations and epiphanies A twelve year old girl survives an illness by communing with the waratah in bloom A traveler in Bombay is arrested by beauty amidst the frenetic urban haze Two twins separated in early childhood journey towards each other A homeless man constantly walks the highways to bury his past An Aboriginal medicine man named Waramingo meets the Dreamtime ancestors A lot of the visionary stories pertain to the land and its secrets and those who visit it from afar Lewis says I believe that the Earth is alive and awaiting our recognition as are the other dimensions that we all could inhabit I hope my stories help you remember what you already know that there is no separation that everything from stones to stars is part of us on this lovely planet

Kookaburra Sarah Legge,2004 Kookaburras are among the largest kingfishers in the world They can live in a wide variety of habitats and have adapted to living around humans relatively well While they may be a familiar icon Sarah Legge also explains why this laughing king of the bush is a much more complex bird than generally assumed

A novel set in Northern Transvaal South Africa describing the tribulations of a widow with a young son and the problems of an inheritance and managing a remote farm in a politically unstable period and territory around 1978 and after      The Kookaburra Who Couldn't Laugh Carolyn McMurray, 2014-04-07

The idea of writing a story about a Kookaburra who couldn't laugh was taken from a real life incident in Sydney      A Child's Book of True Crime Chloe Hooper, 2013-01-29

With the dark suspense of Donna Tartt's The Secret History and the frank and shocking eroticism of Josephine Hart this debut novel tells the story of a young teacher's illicit affair and obsession with a historical murder Tasmanian schoolteacher Kate Byrne is having an affair with the father of her most gifted fourth grader Lucien Her lover's wife has just published Murder at Black Swan Point a true crime story about the brutal slaying of a young adulteress in a nearby town Kate herself has become so obsessed with the murder and so convinced that the published account has it all wrong that she sets about writing her own version this one for children narrated by Australian animals Though Lucien's father brings Kate to life sexually in encounters of escalating eroticism he cannot dull her obsession Fixated on the crime of passion Kate is becoming less and less aware of the present and of how her behavior may align her fate with that of the dead girl

Chloe Hooper chillingly captures this young woman's unraveling in an intense witty superbly crafted novel      Rethinking Identities Across Boundaries Claudia Capancioni, Mariaconcetta Costantini, Mara Mattosio, 2023-11-22

This collection of essays aims to widen the current critique on borders by examining their entanglements with constructions of identity and disciplinary categories In particular it calls into question established models of gender notions of narrative genres and typological genera of borders in today's literary artistic philosophical and socio political discourse The chapters interrogate boundaries and boundary crossing not only in terms of geographical frontiers and the physical acts of trespassing but also as discursive constructs that police crossing subjects as gendered subjects on the one hand and identify artistic genres and academic disciplines as fixed sealed in ways of understanding the world on the other Taking inspiration from the multiple meanings of the Italian word genere which stands for gender genre and typology genus simultaneously the volume reflects on the gendered narrative and typological nature of borders and border imagery and on the significance and potentialities of crossover phenomena taking place in borderlands in the fields of arts literature anthropology sociology and philosophy

Voices of the Other Roderick McGillis, 2013-05-13 This book offers a variety of approaches to children's literature from a postcolonial perspective that includes discussions of cultural appropriation race theory pedagogy as a colonialist activity and multiculturalism The eighteen essays divide into three sections Theory Colonialism Postcolonialism The first section sets the theoretical framework for postcolonial studies essays here deal with issues of otherness and cultural difference as well as the colonialist implications of pedagogic practice These essays confront our relationships with the child and childhood as sites for the exertion of our authority and control Section 2 presents discussions of the colonialist mind set in children's and young adult texts from the turn of the century Here works by writers of animal stories in Canada the U S and Britain works of early Australian colonialist literature and Frances Hodgson Burnett's A Little Princess come under the scrutiny of our postmodern reading practices Section 3 deals directly with contemporary texts for children that manifest both a postcolonial and a neo colonial content In this section the longest in the book we have studies of children's literature from Canada Australia Africa the Caribbean and the United States
