ng 1775 1801 Confucian assumptions about Catholicism are revealed in Ahn's essay Conversation on Catholicism. The work is based on the scholar's exchanges with his son-in-law who joined the small group of Catholics in the 1780s. Ahn argues that Catholicism is immoral because it puts more importance on the salvation of one's soul than on what is best for one's family or community. Conspicuously absent from his Conversation is the reason behind the conversions of his son-in-law and a few other young Confucian intellectuals. Baker examines numerous Confucian texts of the time to argue that in the late eighteenth century Korean Confucians were tormented by a growing concern over human moral frailty. Some among them came to view Catholicism as a way to overcome their moral weakness, become virtuous, and in the process gain eternal life. These anxieties are echoed in Hwang's Silk Letter in which he details for the bishop in Beijing his persecution and the decade preceding it. He explains why Koreans joined and some abandoned the Catholic faith and their devotion to the new religion in the face of torture and execution. Together the two texts reveal much about not only Korean beliefs and values of two centuries ago but also how Koreans viewed their country and their king as well as China and its culture. New Perspectives in Global Latin Elisa Della Calce, Paola Mocella, Simone Mollea, 2025-03-03 The Global Latin II Conference has highlighted the role of the Latin language as cultural medium between West and East. Adopting a diachronic perspective which spans from the Middle Ages to the Modern Age, the conference and its proceedings have paid special attention to texts related to Africa and Asia. The richness of literary genres as well as the dialogue between the Humanities and hard sciences characterize this volume. Students of Classics will find reflections on the role of Latin in the humanistic and missionary traditions, whereas historians of ideas and historians of religions will be able to pinpoint key moments in the use of Latin language and culture in Chinese, Korean, Japanese, and Ethiopian contexts. This volume can also be of interest to people working on Digital Humanities and computational linguistics in Latin language and it represents a novelty on the world scene along the lines of the previous Global Latin I Conference which was yet again held in Siena in 2019. Profiling Saints Elisa Frei, Eleonora Rai, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Zsombor Tóth, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2023-05-15 Profiling Saints follows and expands the papers presented at the homonym online international conference December 2021 which focused on cultural, theological, artistic, and social aspects of models of sanctity and their importance in the modern world up to the post-revolutionary period. This volume aims thus to shed light on the cultural value of canonizations and models of sanctity as models of Christian perfection, including the role of iconography and artworks in the broader context of modern global Catholicism. The topics presented by the authors include veneration to and canonization and representations of saint theologians, missionaries, martyrs, mystics, and reformers, men and women. Profiling Saints looks at modern sanctity and saints from multidisciplinary perspectives ranging from liturgy, theology, and Church history up to history of ideas, cultural history, history of emotions, and art history, and contributes to shed light on such a complex phenomenon of Christian history in its modern developments. The Book of Saints Weldon
