Spanish Society, 1400-1600 Teófilo F. Ruiz, 2014-09-11 Spanish Society depicts a complex and fascinating country in transition from the late Middle Ages to modernity It describes every part of society from the gluttonous nobility to their starving peasants Through anecdotes a lively style and portraits of figures such as St Teresa of Avila and Torquemada the book reflects the character and humour with which the common Spaniard endured an often wretched lot Beginning with a description of the geography political life and

Sacred Landscapes in Antiquity Ralph Haussler, Gian Franco Chiai, 2020-07-31

From generation to generation people experience their landscapes differently Humans depend on their natural environment it shapes their behavior while it is often felt that deities responsible for both natural benefits and natural calamities such as droughts famines floods and landslides need to be appeased We presume that in many societies lakes rivers rocks mountains caves and groves were considered sacred Individual sites and entire landscapes are often associated with divine actions mythical heroes and etiological myths Throughout human history people have also felt the need to monumentalize their sacred landscape But this is where the similarities end as different societies had very different understandings beliefs and practices The aim of this new thematic appraisal is to scrutinize carefully our evidence and rethink our methodologies in a multi disciplinary approach More than 30 papers investigate diverse sacred landscapes from the Iberian peninsula and Britain in the west to China in the east They discuss how to interpret the intricate web of ciphers and symbols in the landscape and how people might have experienced it We see the role of performance ritual orality textuality and memory in people's sacred landscapes A diachronic view allows us to study how landscapes were rewritten adapted and redefined in the course of time to suit new cultural political and religious understandings not to mention the impact of urbanism on people's understandings A key question is how was the landscape manipulated transformed and monumentalized especially the colossal investments in monumental architecture we see in certain socio historic contexts or the creation of an alternative humanmade seemingly non natural landscape with perfectly astronomically aligned buildings that define a cosmological order Sacred Landscapes therefore aims to analyze the complex links between landscape religiosity and society developing a dialectic framework that explores sacred landscapes across the ancient world in a dynamic holistic contextual and historical perspective Negotiating Past and Present David Thatcher Gies,1997 Re-Imagining Resilient Productive Landscapes

Carla Brisotto,Fabiano Lemes de Oliveira,2022-03-09 This book explores how lessons from past urban planning experiences can inform current debates on urban agriculture Productive landscapes today have been posited as instruments for the positive transformation related to territorial fragility and abandonment promoting social cohesion food security and wider environmental and economic benefits The book will re map the way in which seeming landscape limitations and challenges can be turned into potential innovation and a new lease of urban rural life It does so by drawing on significant past urban agricultural experiences in planning as vectors for new critical reflections relevant to re igniting ideas for future envisioning of urban scenarios in which productive landscapes play fundamental transformative roles The focus is on planning ideas and the roles of key individual planners all of which have designed agricultural strategies for the city at some point in their careers It intends to help us today reimagine urban rural relationships and the transformation of under or mis used urban open spaces peri urban areas fringe conditions and in between spaces Campos de Castilla Antonio Machado,2002

Antonio Machado was born in Seville in 1885 and died in southern France early in 1939 escaping from the Nationalist advance in the Spanish Civil War He is increasingly recognized as one of the four greatest Spanish language poets of the twentieth century but lack of adequate translations has limited his appreciation in the English speaking world Here a native Spanish and a native English speaker set out to remedy this deficiency The beauty of his landscape fused with its sadness as his young wife s resting place gave Machado his distinctive voice intimate elegiac at once detached and involved most characteristically expressed in Campos de Castilla 1917 from which many of the poems here selected are taken The language of his poetry is spare relying strongly on nouns and adjectives asserting more than describing equally anti baroque and against the excesses of modern cosmetics Self Portrait His father had been a collector of folklore and Machado saw the romance ballad tradition as lying at the heart of the authentic Spanish poetic tradition English cannot recreate the assonance on which he relied but this translation captures the essential rhythm as well as the poignancy of the original Spanish text with facing page translation introduction and notes Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present Marie

Layered Landscapes Eric Nelson,Jonathan Wright,2017-06-26 This volume explores the conceptualization and construction of sacred space in a wide variety of faith traditions Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and the religions of Japan It deploys the notion of layered landscapes in order to trace the accretions of praxis and belief the tensions between old and new devotional patterns and the imposition of new religious ideas and behaviors on pre existing religious landscapes in a series of carefully chosen locales Cuzco Edo Geneva Granada Herat Istanbul Jerusalem Kanchipuram Paris Philadelphia Prague and Rome Some chapters hone in on the process of imposing novel religious beliefs while others focus on how vestiges of displaced faiths endured The intersection of sacred landscapes with political power the world of ritual and the expression of broader cultural and social identity are also examined Crucially the volume reveals that the creation of sacred space frequently involved more than religious buildings and was a work of historical imagination and textual expression While a book of contrasts as much as comparisons the volume demonstrates that vital questions about the location of the sacred and its reification in the landscape were posed by religious believers across the early modern world The
