Cultural Identity in the Ancient Mediterranean Erich S. Gruen, 2011 Cultural identity in the classical world is explored from a variety of angles Roman Portraits Paul Zanker, 2016-11-14 Portrait sculptures are among the most vibrant records of ancient Greek and Roman culture They represent people of all ages and social strata revered poets and philosophers emperors and their family members military heroes local dignitaries ordinary citizens and young children The Met's distinguished collection of Greek and Roman portraits in stone and bronze is published in its entirety for the first time in this volume Paul Zanker a leading authority on Roman sculpture today has brought his exceptional knowledge to the study of these portraits in presenting them he brings the ancient world to life for contemporary audiences Each work is lavishly illustrated meticulously described and placed in its historical and cultural context The lives and achievement of significant figures are discussed in the framework of the political social and practical circumstances that influenced their portraits forms and styles from the unvarnished realism of the late Republican period to the idealizing and progressively abstract
