shows how to avoid this failure by focusing on the planning stage and building on this framework as the business develops. The book contains all the underpinning factual information required to prepare a successful Business Plan for presentation to a bank manager or an alternative potential source of finance or for use in an NVQ portfolio. It is in line with the major syllabuses for Business Start Up and can be used as a course book for anyone completing a formal NVQ level 3 and 4 qualification in this area with tips on NVQ structure and assessment. Enterprise Planning and Development shows how to make the most of business growth and also how to deal with the different types of problems that are encountered along the way. All businesses pass through several stages of growth and it occurs for a number of reasons such as change in the commercial market, increased customer demand for services or product and higher numbers of customers. The book is structured to follow a logical sequence of questions that makes it readily accessible: Where are we now? Where do we want to go? What resources are needed to get there? What sales and marketing policies do we need to develop? It examines the personnel and staffing implications, the efficiency of the current financial management process and the owner's own abilities to make it all happen.

Engineering a High-tech Business José Miguel López-Higuera, B. Culshaw, 2008. This book provides actual entrepreneurial stories giving insight into the pitfalls and successes one might find in starting or even continuing with a small high tech business. Insights into innovative speculative and largely successful new ventures as experienced by those who went through the process are complemented by comments and observations from others in the field including researchers, economists, investors, regional development agencies, technology transfer organizations and universities. The book is recommended to entrepreneurs in all high technology disciplines and in particular for students and early career professionals. It can be also useful for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in entrepreneurship which many institutions are currently introducing and to those who are interested in how a high tech business might develop.
