Flying the Southern Cross Michael Molokentin, 2012 In 1928 Charles Kingsford Smith and Charles Ulm made the first trans Pacific flight in the Southern Cross an aircraft constructed largely of wood and fabric They made the trip from Oakland California in nine days during which they faced electrical storms torrential rain equipment failure and fuel shortages Navigational aids were primitive contact with the outside world was by Morse code only and safety measures were non-existent After many close calls they triumphantly landed in Brisbane where a crowd of 15 000 welcomed them as heroes Throughout this extraordinary journey Ulm kept a logbook in which he recorded his raw impressions of the flight Using Ulm's logbook plus contemporary newspaper accounts and official documents Flying the Southern Cross tells the gripping tale of this history making flight and the aviators who made it happen Ten Journeys to Cameron's Farm Cameron Hazlehurst, 2013-11-11 In the whole history of government in Australia this was the most devastating tragedy Three decades after what he called a dreadful air crash almost within sight of my windows Robert Menzies wrote I shall never forget that terrible hour I felt that for me the end of the world had come Ten Journeys to Cameron's Farm tells the lives of the ten men who perished in Duncan Cameron's Canberra property on 13 August 1940 three Cabinet ministers the Chief of the General Staff two senior staff members and the RAAF crew of four The inquiries into the accident and the aftermath for the Air Force government and bereaved families are examined Controversial allegations are probed did the pilot F Lt Bob Hitchcock cause the crash or was the Minister for Air Jim Fairbairn at the controls Cameron Hazlehurst is a storyteller one of the all too rare breed who can write scholarly works which speak to a wider audience In the most substantial original and authoritative account of the Canberra aircraft accident of August 1940 he provides unique insights into a critical poignant moment in Australian history Hazlehurst's account is touched with irony and quirks set within a framework of political social and military history distinctions of class education and rank and the machinations of parliamentary and service politics and of the official mind The research is meticulous and wide ranging the analysis is always balanced and the writing at once skilful and compelling This is a work of an exceptional historian Ian Hancock author of Nick Greiner A Political Biography John Gorton He Did It His Way and National and Permanent The Federal Organisation of the Liberal Party of Australia Ten Journeys to Cameron's Farm is a monumental work of historical research pegged on a single lethal moment at the apex of government at an extraordinarily sensitive time in Australia's history The book embodies top drawer scholarship deep sensitivity to antipodean class structures and sensibilities and a nuanced understanding of both democratic and bureaucratic politics Christine Wallace author of Germaine Greer Untamed Shrew and The Private Don the man behind the legend of Don Bradman parents are recalled with painful immediacy in this meticulously researched tribute to those who died or were lucky enough to survive DAILY MAIL The empty chairs belonged all too briefly to the doomed young First World War airmen who failed to return from the terrifying daily aerial combats above the trenches of the Western Front The edict of their commander in chief was the missing aviators were to be immediately replaced Before the new faces could arrive the departed men's vacant seats at the squadron dinner table were sometimes poignantly occupied by their caps and boots placed there in a sad ritual by their surviving colleagues as they drank to their memory Life for most of the pilots of the Royal Flying Corps was appallingly short If they graduated alive and unmaimed from the flying training that killed more than half of them before they reached the front line only a few would for very long survive the daily battles they fought over the ravaged moonscape of no man's land Their average life expectancy at the height of the war was measured only in weeks Parachutes that began to save their German enemies were denied them Fear of incarceration and the daily spectacle of watching close colleagues die in burning aircraft took a devastating toll on the nerves of the world's first fighter pilots Many became mentally ill As they waited for death or with luck the survivable wound that would send them back to Blighty they poured their emotions into their diaries and streams of letters to their loved ones at home Drawing on these remarkable testimonies and pilots' memoirs Ian Mackersey has brilliantly reconstructed the First Great Air War through the lives of its participants As they waited to die the men shared their loneliness their fears triumphs and squadron gossip with the families who lived in daily dread of the knock on the door that would bring the War Office telegram in its fateful green envelope In a Sunburned Country Bill Bryson, 2012-05-15 Deliciously funny fact filled and adventurous In a Sunburned Country takes us on a grand tour of Australia It's a place where interesting things happen all the time from a Prime Minister lost yes lost while swimming at sea to Japanese cult members who may entirely unnoticed have set off an atomic bomb on their 500 000 acre property in the great western desert Australia is the only island that is also a continent and the only continent that is also a country Its aboriginal people a remote and mysterious race with a tragic history have made it their home for millennia And despite the fact that it is the most desiccated infertile and climatically aggressive of all inhabited continents it teems with life In fact Australia has more things that can kill you in extremely nasty ways than anywhere else sharks crocodiles the planet's ten most deadly poisonous snakes fluffy yet toxic caterpillars sea shells that actually attack you and the unbelievable box jellyfish don't ask The dangerous riptides of the sea and the sun baked wastes of the outback both lie in wait for the unwary Australia is an immense and fortunate land and it has found in Bill Bryson its perfect guide In a Sunburned Country offers the best of all possible introductions to what may well be the best of all possible nations Even with those jellyfish Women in British Imperial Airspace Liz Millward, 2007-12-18 The romance of flying the airways that developed above the British empire between the two world wars seduced young women with the promise of independence glamour and adventure Aviation in Northern California 1910-1939 Allen Herr, 2020-07-01 Aviation in Northern California 1910-1939 Vol 1 San Francisco Bay

Area is the only book to give a detailed account of early flying in the Bay Area Historian Allen Herr recalls the aviation pioneers who flew weekly exhibitions promoting the Panama Pacific International Exposition fifteen months prior to its San Francisco opening These pioneers formed flying schools built airports manufactured aircraft and competed against each other Herr captures the energy behind the Bay Area aviation movement tells who was involved and describes the effects of their extraordinary determination and achievements This edition is one of three in Herr s series of Aviation in Northern California 1910 1939
