Smoke Over Birkenau Jewish Lives:

Smoke Over Birkenau Liana Millu,1991 Presents stories of women who lived and suffered alongside Liana Millu during months in a concentration camp describing their struggle to overcome violence and tragedy Smoke Over Birkenau Liana Millu,1997 Jewish Men and the Holocaust: Sexuality, Emotions, Masculinity Florian Zabransky,2024-10-21 During the Holocaust amid death and violence Jewish men were not mere powerless victims Linking gender studies with a history of sexuality and emotions will highlight intimate agency power struggles negotiations of relationships social dynamics and representations of masculinities Considering the agency and vulnerability will further convey intimate choices the representation of masculine ideals intimate violence and the expression of various emotions such as honour and love As research on the Holocaust often links women with sexuality or portrays women as gendered beings it is crucial to excavate the intimate hidden lives of Jewish men and their specific intimate experiences as men The analysis not only demonstrates how Jewish men remember and make sense of their experiences but also how they chose to form the narrative and how they represented their ordeal in four chapters namely ghettos concentration camps Jewish resistance in the countryside and finally DP camps in the aftermath of the Holocaust The consideration of these four spaces allows a nuanced innovative understanding of the intimate history of Jewish men during the Holocaust i e how some men established male dominated structures and established intimate strategies to find solace and pleasure The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Bozena Karwowska,2023-10-16 The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Early Literary Accounts of the Camp Experience examines bodily descriptions from early testimonies of concentration camp survivors focusing on questions related to meanings of corporeality as well as to Holocaust researchers and links the discourse of the body with a social cartography of the Auschwitz camp complex The heart of the book is comprised of memory based texts written by survivors in the early years after the war The early texts discussed were written in Polish and while some became internationally recognized others remain virtually unknown especially outside of Poland These early memoirs and literary works help navigate the space of the Auschwitz camp complex from the perspective of the victims based on their experiences and decipher those areas devoid of narratives spaces of total annihilation Literary accounts and early testimonies allow us to map the space of the camp differently than through the documents produced by the Nazi perpetrators Such a social cartography also includes specific gendered differences and allows Karwowska to critically analyze sensitive questions related to the body gender and sexuality of a prisoner After the Holocaust David Cesarani,Eric J. Sundquist,2011-09-29 For the last decade scholars have been questioning the idea that the Holocaust was not talked about in any way until well into the 1970s After the Holocaust Challenging the Myth of Silence is the first collection of authoritative original scholarship to expose a serious misreading of the past on which controversially the claims for a Holocaust industry rest Taking an international approach this bold new book exposes the myth and opens the way for a sweeping reassessment of Jewish life in the postwar era a life lived in the pervasive shared awareness that Jews had narrowly survived a catastrophe that had engulfed humanity as a whole but claimed two thirds of their number The chapters include an overview of the efforts by survivor historians and memoir writers to inform the world of the catastrophe that had befallen the Jews of Europe an evaluation of the work of survivor historians and memoir writers new light on the Jewish historical commissions and the Jewish documentation centres studies of David Boder a Russian born psychologist who recorded searing interviews with survivors and the work of philosophers social thinkers and theologians theatrical productions by survivors and the first films on the theme made in Hollywood how the Holocaust had an impact on the everyday life of Jews in the USA and a discussion of the different types and meanings of silence A breakthrough volume in the debate about the Myth of Silence this is a must for all students of Holocaust and genocide

Gulag Literature and the Literature of Nazi Camps Leona Toker, 2019-08-28 A literary scholar examines survival narratives from Russian and German concentration camps shedding new light on testimony in the face of evil In this illuminating study Leona Toker demonstrates how Holocaust literature and Gulag literature provide contexts for each other especially how the prominent features of one shed light on the veiled features and methods of the other Toker's analysis concentrates on the narrative qualities of the works as well as how each text documents the writer's experience in a form where fictionalized narrative can double as historical testimony Toker also views these texts against the background of historical information about the Soviet and the Nazi regimes of repression Writers at the center of this work include Varlam Shalamov Primo Levi Elie Wiesel and Ka Tzetnik and others including Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Evgeniya Ginzburg and Jorge Sempr n illuminate the discussion Toker also provides context for references to potentially obscure historical events and shows how they form new meaning in the text

The Liberation of the Camps Dan Stone, 2015-01-01 A moving deeply researched account of survivors experiences of liberation from Nazi death camps and the long difficult years that followed Seventy years have passed since the tortured inmates of Hitler's concentration and extermination camps were liberated When the horror of the atrocities came fully to light it was easy for others to imagine the joyful relief of freed prisoners Yet for those who had survived the unimaginable the experience of liberation was a slow grueling journey back to life In this unprecedented inquiry into the days months and years following the arrival of Allied forces at the Nazi camps a foremost historian of the Holocaust draws on archival sources and especially on eyewitness testimonies to reveal the complex challenges liberated victims faced and the daunting tasks their liberators undertook to help them reclaim their shattered lives Historian Dan Stone focuses on the survivors their feelings of guilt exhaustion fear shame for having survived and devastating grief for lost family members their immense medical problems and their later demands to be released from Displaced Persons camps and resettled in countries of their own choosing Stone

Simonetta Milli Konewko,2016-08-20 Neorealism and the New Italy centers on neorealist Italian artists use of compassion as a vehicle to express their characters interactions Simonetta Milli Konewko proposes that compassion as an emotion may be activated to unify certain individuals and communities and investigates the mechanisms that allowed compassion to operate during the postwar period Aiming to produce a deeper understanding of the ways in which Italy is re encoded and reconstructed this book explores the formation of Italian identity and redefines neorealism as a topic of investigation

Aroma Constance Classen,David Howes,Anthony Synnott,2002-11-01 Smell is a social phenomenon given particular meanings and values by different cultures Odours form the building blocks of cosmologies class hierarchies and political odours They can enforce social structures or transgress them unite people or divide them empower or disempower The authors argue that the sociology of smell is repressed in the modern West and its social history ignored This book breaks the olfactory silence of modernity It offers the first comprehensive exploration of the cultural role of odours in Western history from antiquity to the present It also covers a wide variety of non Western societies Its topics range from the medieval concept of the odour of sanctity to the aromatherapies of South America and from olfactory stereotypes of gender and ethnicity in the modern West to the role of smell in postmodernity Its subject matter will fascinate anyone who likes to nose around in the inner workings of culture

Jewish Doctors and the Holocaust Ross W. Halpin,2019-01-14 This is the first attempt to explain how Jewish doctors survived extreme adversity in Auschwitz where death could occur at any moment The ordinary Jewish slave labourer survived an average of fifteen weeks Ross Halpin discovers that Jewish doctors survived an average of twenty months many under the same horrendous conditions as ordinary prisoners Despite their status as privileged prisoners Jewish doctors starved froze were beaten to death and executed Many Holocaust survivors attest that luck God and miracles were their saviors The author suggests that surviving Auschwitz was far more complex Interweaving the stories of Jewish doctors before and during the Holocaust Halpin develops a model that explains the anatomy of survival According to his model the genesis of survival of extreme adversity is the will to live which must be accompanied by the necessities of life specific personal traits and defence mechanisms For survival all four must co exist

Imagery from Genesis in Holocaust Memoirs Deborah Lee Prescott,2014-01-10 In the life stories of Holocaust survivors biblical imagery can be invoked to explicate the unexplainable to make real the unreal This text examines the role of Genesis in the autobiographies of survivors Three main concerns converge the literary nature of Biblical allusion the contextual history of the Holocaust and Midrashic
