

The Solution to World Hunger

Describing how hunger affects the body and is prevalent in the world, varying from place to place with options of how to fix it.

Issues

The richness of different countries' economic growth influences how they see how Northern countries like Europe can better off now because of early economic success. Southern countries such as Egypt focus on specialized exports to countries that are not off which limits the amount of food that can be bought on imports. Customized way is major part of this.

Global institutions such as the World Bank and International Monetary Fund were created after World War II to provide financial solutions to hunger. Global institutions as they existed structured development policies (aid) to be in place to allow the developing world to overcome economic issues. Impact on countries such as women. Overall, the aid played a larger burden on the lower class.

Despite 12.5% of deaths among children under 5 are attributed to wasting due to malnourished children.
