Studies on Western Esotericism in Central and Eastern Europe Nemanja Radulović, Karolina Maria Hess, 2019-06-01 These papers examine how occult and esoteric themes appear in visual and verbal media connecting to intellectual history literature the arts present day pop culture and religious practices The topics range from the witchcraft motives in the love poetry of the 15th century Humanist poet Conrad Celtis through the activities of Polish and Russian theosophists Croatian Greek Polish painters of the spiritual the philosophy of wine by the Hungarian esoteric philosopher B la Hamvas to contemporary Serbian magic and neo shamanism Two studies touch upon the influence of Freemasonry and the Kabbalah in Western esotericism and although these are not specifically Central European topics they provide parallel perspectives to what the other papers of the collection are investigating

Jews in the Early Modern World Dean Phillip

Bell, 2008 Jews in the Early Modern World argues that the years between 1400 and 1700 represented a discrete cohesive and important period in Jewish history. Given the significant demographic shifts that began just before and ended just after this period, remarkable changes occurred in the history and experiences of Jews around the world. This volume begins with a broad context of Jewish experiences under medieval Christianity and Islam. It then turns to the early modern period, first providing an overview of Jewish demography and settlement. Next, the nature and structure of Jewish community and social structures in the early modern period are explored. In the final two chapters, this book presents a broad overview of Jewish religious and cultural life and Jewish relations with non-Jews throughout the early modern period. Publisher The Nation and Athenæum, 1928. The Nation and Athenæum, 1928. The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman, 2023. From beloved spiritual teacher Carl McColman comes a book about the possibility of achieving authentic blissful experiential union with God. He reveals the various ways Christian mysticism and contemplation have been in dynamic practice through the centuries, proving inspirational for today's seekers regardless of faith tradition. Occult Roots of Religious Studies Yves Mühlematter, Helmut Zander, 2021-06-08. The historiographers of religious studies have written the history of this discipline primarily as a rationalization of ideological, most prominently theological and phenomenological ideas. First through the establishment of comparative philological and sociological methods and secondly through the demand for intentional neutrality. This interpretation caused important roots in occult esoteric traditions to be repressed. This process of purification, Latour is not to be equated with the origin of the academic studies. De facto, the elimination of idealistic theories took time and only happened later. One example concerning the early entanglement is Tibetology, where many researchers and respected chair holders were influenced by theosophical ideas or were even members of the Theosophical Society. Similarly, the emergence of comparatistics cannot be understood without taking into account perennialist ideas of esoteric provenance, which hold that all religions have a common origin. In this perspective, it is not only the history of religious studies which must be revisited but also the partial shaping of religious studies by these traditions insofar as it saw itself as a counter model to occult ideas. Esotericism in Western Culture Wouter J. Hanegraaff, 2025-05-29. This accessible introduction by the world's leading expert explains why the study of esotericism is not a marginal pursuit but belongs at the center of modern research in the humanities. Reflecting updates in the field since the foundational publication Western Esotericism: A Guide for the Perplexed 2013, Wouter J. Hanegraaff demonstrates that the exclusion of rejected knowledge from normative accounts of Western civilization is the reflection of a narrow Eurocentric ideology that became the template for discrediting and ultimately destroying so-called primitive cultures associated with superstition and pagan idolatry during the global colonial age. Rejecting this rejection of rejected knowledge means restoring the suppressed to its legitimate place in history and cultural analysis. Through this approach, Wouter J. Hanegraaff depicts a radically inclusive vision of the Greater West and its forgotten histories from pagan antiquity through Jewish, Christian, and

Islamic cultures up to secular modernity and beyond
