Studies in the queer, the uncanny and the fanatical ... With twelve plates Eric John Dingwall,James ALLEN (the Female Husband.),Alexis Vincent Charles BERBIGUIER,Daniel Dunglas HOME,Editha JACKSON,François de PARIS,1947 Psychics, Sensitives and Somnambules Rodger I. Anderson,2006-09-28 Claimants of paranormal abilities have always attracted controversy and fascination and sometimes rigorous study by scientists Charles Bailey an Australian medium was seemingly able to materialize different objects animate and inanimate under conditions which made it difficult to conceive how they could have been normally produced Sumitra Singh a woman of Northern India who in 1984 became subject to epileptic type seizures claimed to be possessed by spirits of the dead Franck Kluski was a Polish poet banker and physical medium who specialized in both human and animal materializations This biographical dictionary contains profiles of 330 psychics worldwide from Tony Agpaoa to Elenor Zugun each accompanied by a bibliography listing the primary sources consulted The primary focus is on those claimed psychics who have figured prominently in the history of the subject though some lesser known figures are included to show how rich varied and colorful that history has been The aim throughout is to present each case as fairly and dispassionately as the facts allow with a particular eye for accuracy in details and presentation The approach is historical not apologetic or accusatory making the work ideally suited as a permanent reference The Thought Reader Craze Barry H. Wiley,2012-10-06 Beginning in 1870 the hunger for scientific discovery in Great Britain drove prominent scientists philosophers and others to promote the legitimacy of telepathy At the same time mind reading as a form of entertainment gained increasing popularity as persuasive performers like John Randall Brown W I Bishop and Stuart C Cumberland convinced reporters that they truly could read the thoughts of others The widely publicized sometimes bizarre interactions between scientists and these charlatans ushered in the Thought Reader Craze a period that lasted through about 1910 and saw entertainers make and lose fortunes and scientists make and lose reputations This volume explores this unusual cultural phenomenon showing how it was aided through the years by public scientific pronouncements astonishing performances by the thought readers and the rapidly changing industrial society

The Man Who Could Fly Michael Grosso, 2015-12-14 St Joseph of Copertino began having mystical visions at the age of seven but it was not until he began practicing his faith as a Franciscan priest that he realized the full potential of his mind's power over his body he was able to levitate Throughout his priesthood St Joseph became famous for frequent levitations that were observed on hundreds of occasions and by thousands of witnesses including many skeptics Michael Grosso delves into the biography of the saint to explore the many strange phenomena that surrounded his life and develops potential physical explanations for some of the most astounding manifestations of his religious ecstasy Grosso draws upon contemporary explorations into cognition the relationship between the human mind and body and the scientifically recorded effects of meditation and other transcendent practices to reveal the implications of St Joseph's experiences and abilities

They Flew Carlos M. N. Eire, 2023-09-26 An award winning historian's examination of impossible events at the dawn of modernity and of their enduring significance Accounts of seemingly impossible phenomena abounded in the early modern era tales of levitation bilocation and witchcraft even as skepticism atheism and empirical science were starting to supplant religious belief in the paranormal In this book Carlos Eire explores how a culture increasingly devoted to scientific thinking grappled with events deemed impossible by its leading intellectuals Eire observes how levitating saints and flying witches were as essential a component of early modern life as the religious turmoil of the age and as much a part of history as Newton's scientific discoveries. Relying on an array of firsthand accounts and focusing on exceptionally impossible cases involving levitation, bilocation, witchcraft, and demonic possession, Eire challenges established assumptions about the redrawing of boundaries between the natural and supernatural that marked the transition to modernity. Using as his case studies stories about St. Teresa of Avila, St. Joseph of Cupertino, the Venerable Mary MacGreda, and three disgraced nuns, Eire challenges readers to imagine a world animated by a different understanding of reality and of the supernatural's relationship with the natural world. The questions he explores, such as why and how impossibility is determined by cultural contexts and whether there is more to reality than meets the eye or can be observed by science, have resonance and lessons for our time. The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser, 1962
