Some Land Certificates From The Fung:

Studies in the History of the Near East P.M. Holt, 2013-10-28 First Published in 1973 This volume brings together a number of studies concerned with the Near East and its history from the sixteenth century They fall into three groups The first is concerned with English Arabists of the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries and particularly with Edward Pococke The papers in the second group deal with the history of the Nilotic Sudan and especially attempt to exploit the sparse source materials available on the Funj Sultanate and to throw some light on developments between the sixteenth and the nineteenth century Another dark age in modern Near Eastern history is the subject of the third group of papers the period of Egyptian history from the Ottoman conquest in 1517 to the French occupation in 1798 Kingdoms of the Sudan R.S. O'Fahey, J.L. Spaulding, 2016-10-04 This book first published in 1974 is a study of the two states which dominated the northern and western regions of Sudan from the sixteenth to the nineteenth century the Funj kingdom of Sinn r and the Keira sultanate of D r F r Until now the history of these two states has been neglected in comparison with that of the western states of the Sudanic Belt The authors spent years researching the documentation of the period and the present book is a concise survey of their findings comprising history literature politics economics trade and religion Routledge Library Editions: Sudan Various Authors, 2021-03-11 This 5 volume set brings together research into the Sudan works both modern and classic Two works examine the Sudan of the late nineteenth century a time when Anglo Egyptian domination was enforced on the country two works detail the Sudan of the twentieth century looking at its politics economy and society and a last work traces the roots of modern Sudan through the historic tribes of the region Islam, Revival, and Reform Natana J. DeLong-Bas, 2022-04-22 Rooted in the world historical methodology of John O Voll this collection brings together a diverse group of scholars to investigate the ongoing impact of revival and reform movements beginning in the eighteenth century and continuing through to the present Ranging from the MENA region to Africa India and China and covering a variety of religious interpretations from scripturalist to Sufism these essays offer new perspectives on movements including the Wahhabis of Arabia the Sokoto Caliphate the neo Sufism of Shah Wali Allah of Delhi Sufi scholars and networks on the African continent and the Muslim Brotherhood Contributors explore encounters between Islamic revival and reform and modernity with a focus on the ways in which Islamic reforms influence the political sphere Concluding with contemporary reinterpretations of Islam in the digital arena this volume examines but also moves beyond texts to include embodiments of religious practice the development of religious culture and education and attention to women's contributions to education cultural production and community building Class and Power in Sudan Tim Niblock, 1987-08-01 With the attention of the industrialized world focused on the political economic and social strife of Africa Tim Niblock travels to Sudan for a first hand investigation of the socio economic structure of that continent's largest country His findings hold significant implications for the wider context of Africa the Arab countries and the Third World His is a systematic and comprehensive study of Sudanese politics A country with immense economic potential possessing extensive tracts of cultivable but currently uncultivated land Sudan could emerge as a major source of food for the Arab world Yet it is threatened by famine while attempts at development are frustrated by civil war and political disarray Niblock examines the political economic and social factors that have shaped the country s development The fate of Sudan will be critical to the political stability of North East Africa and the Red Sea area and the Sudanese experience is instructive for underdeveloped countries as a whole Prelude to the Mahdiyya Anders Bjorkelo, Anders Bjørkelo, 2003-02-13 This book analyses socio economic change among the peasants and traders during the the Turkiyya period of Sudanese history Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1976
