M. Kidd, 1935 The Law Students' Journal John Indermaur, Charles Thwaites, 1908 The Summons, 1920 University of Virginia Alumni News, 1928 Scholars of Contract Law James Goudkamp, Donal Nolan, 2022-12-01 This book provides a counter balance to the traditional focus on judicial decisions by exploring the contribution of legal scholars to the development of private law In the book the work of a selection of leading scholars of contract law from across the common law world ranging from Sir Jeffrey Gilbert 1674 1726 to Professor Brian Coote 1929 2019 is addressed by legal historians and current scholars in the field The focus is on the nature of the work produced by the scholars in question important influences on their work and the impact which that work in turn had on thinking about contract law The book also includes an introductory chapter and an afterword by Professor William Twining that explore connections between the scholars and recurrent themes The process of subjecting contract law scholarship to sustained analysis provides new insights into the intellectual development of contract law and reveals the central role played by scholars in that process And by focusing attention on the work of influential contract scholars the book serves to emphasise the importance of legal scholarship to the development of the common law more generally Logic, Probability, and Presumptions in Legal Reasoning Scott Brewer, 2013-06-17 At least since Plato and Aristotle thinkers have pondered the relationship between philosophical arguments and the sophistical arguments offered by the Sophists who were the first professional lawyers Judges wield substantial political power and the justifications they offer for their decisions are a vital means by which citizens can assess the legitimacy of how that power is exercised However to evaluate judicial justifications requires close attention to the method of reasoning behind decisions This new collection illuminates and explains the political and moral importance in justifying the exercise of judicial power
