Children's Book Prizes Ruth Allen,2019-01-22 First published in 1998 this book is the first comprehensive survey of the awards made to children s books in the English speaking world The Volume covers nearly forty different prizes including well known and established ones such as the Newbury Award prizes instigated by the commercial sector such as the Smarties Prize as well as nationally sponsored awards and prizes for illustrators Detailed lists are provided of the winning titles and where appropriate the runners up in each year that the award has been given Ruth Allen also presents some fascinating and often entertaining insights into the motivations behind awards and how they are views by authors illustrators publishers librarians booksellers and potential purchasers The various criteria applied by judges of these awards are also examined with an assessment of whether they have always achieved the right result This Volume is both a useful guide for adults wishing to buy good books for children and an important tool for those researching the history of the children s book industry

Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M. Tomlinson,1998-01-15 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children s Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children s literature The concept of a bibliography of international children s literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children s books Children s Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children a brief history of the children s literature movement related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996 All titles are available in English many have been translated and others have originated in other English speaking countries The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality They are primarily targeted for children ages 0 14 although a few outstanding young adult titles are included Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix Indexes include Author Title Index Country of Origin Index and Subject Index Affordable and readable this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children Sponsored by the United State

Historical Dictionary of Children's Literature Emer O'Sullivan, 2010-11-22 Children s literature comes from a number of different sources folklore folk and fairy tales books originally for adults and subsequently adapted for children and material authored specifically for them and its audience ranges from infants through middle graders to young adults readers from about 12 to 18 years old Its forms include picturebooks pop up books anthologies novels merchandising tie ins novelizations and multimedia texts and its genres include adventure stories drama science fiction poetry and information books The Historical Dictionary of Children s Literature relates the history of children s literature through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes a bibliography and over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors books and genres Some of the most legendary names in all of literature are covered in this important reference including Hans Christian Anderson L Frank Baum Lewis Carroll Roald Dahl Charles Dickens C S Lewis Beatrix Potter J K Rowling Robert Louis Stevenson Mark Twain J R R Tolkien Jules Verne and E B White
