

Somebody Moved in Next Door

Janet Slater Bottin

SESSION ONE: Chapters 1 and 2

Preparing for reading

- Study the cover illustration and title. Ask the students to describe the facial expressions of each child in the picture. What appears to be happening? Which of the two students might be the new neighbor?
- Ask the students if they have ever had a new neighbor. Have they ever been curious about new neighbors? Are they best friends with any of their neighbors?

Reading

- Ask the students to silently read to the end of Chapter 2 after setting the focus questions:
“Could Charlie’s behavior be causing the new neighbor to ignore Charlie?”
“Does Charlie work as a team member for a recycling competition project? Why?”

Early finishers can write an alternative ending to the incident with Frisbee the cat.

Discussing and examining the text

- Give early finishers an opportunity to share their alternative endings if they wish to and share the students’ responses to the focus questions. Then discuss the following:
“Charlie was unsure of whether the next-door neighbor was a boy or a girl. Is Charlie a boy or a girl? Search the text for evidence.”
“Charlie has made an assumption about the next-door neighbor and has labeled her. Are Charlie’s labels (name-calling) justified?”
- The author, Janet Slater Bottin, has used humor in her writing. Draw the students’ attention to the features that make the writing entertaining and humorous. Focus on the use of short sentences, repetition, italics, and exclamation marks.
