Someone Special Died:

Someone Special Died Joan Singleton Prestine, 2002 A young girl describes the anger and sadness she feels after someone she loved dies and makes a scrapbook to remember the things they did together When Someone Very Special Dies Marge Eaton Heegaard, 1996-07-23 A practical format for allowing children to understand the concept of death and develop coping skills for life

Did Someone You Love Die? Tracy A. Phillips, 2015-07-15 For a teen it can be especially difficult to lose a family member or friend through death Explore the emotions involved and learn ways to get through this experience as well as how to support someone living through a loss

Someone Very Important Has Just Died Mary Turner, Elaine Bailey, 2004 Gives guidance on what adults might say and do to help children and teenagers suffering a close bereavement

How To Go On Living When Someone You Love Dies Therese A. Rando, 1991-07-18 An inspiring guide to help you through the mourning process including a comprehensive resource listing and a chapter on finding professional help and support groups The most comprehensive insightful and helpful volume on loss and survival Rabbi Dr Earl A Grollman author of Living When a Loved One Has Died Mourning the death of a loved one is a process all of us will go through at one time or another But wherever the death is sudden or anticipated few of us are prepared for it or for the grief it brings There is no right or wrong way to grieve each person's response to loss will be different Now in this compassionate comprehensive guide previously published as Grieving Therese A Rando Ph D bereavement specialist and author of Loss and Anticipatory Grief leads you gently through the painful but necessary process of grieving and helps you find the best way for yourself Whether the death was sudden or expected from accident illness suicide homicide or natural causes Dr Rando will help you learn to Understand and resolve your grief Talk to children about death Resolve unfinished business Take care of yourself Accept the help and support of others Get through holidays and other difficult times of the year Plan funerals and personal bereavement rituals There is no way around the pain of loss but there is a way through it Dr Rando offers the solace comfort and guidance to help you accept your loss and move into your new life without forgetting your treasured past

Death Janine Amos, 2007 Contains two stories based on difficult situations such as death divorce going into hospital and moving house When People Die Jane Lacey, 2018-12-15 Death is difficult to deal with at any age but for children who are handling it for the first time it can be extra tough This engaging book will help young readers learn to navigate this type of situation Whether it is a friend family member or acquaintance who has passed away readers will learn about the best ways to handle death through the help of relatable stories and colorful illustrations Practical advice is presented in a way readers of all ages can understand and implement into their own lives My Grandma Died Lory Britain, 2003 This gentle story of a child reacting to a grandparent's death is written for the very young It uses simple honest language to clarify that death is permanent that the child will never again be able to bake cookies or rock with Grandma This loss the child acknowledges is far greater than the loss of a toy or a pet's disappearance This book assures the young child that it's normal to feel angry frightened and sad when grieving It also helps a child distinguish between the emotional pain of grief and the physical pain children have already experienced in such routine activities as outdoor play Carefully researched and reviewed by therapists who work with pre school and primary age children offers practical age appropriate suggestions for coping with loss
