How to Get People to Do Stuff Susan Weinschenk, 2013-03-07 We all want people to do stuff Whether you want your customers to buy from you vendors to give you a good deal your employees to take more initiative or your spouse to make dinner a large amount of everyday is about getting the people around you to do stuff Instead of using your usual tactics that sometimes work and sometimes don t what if you could harness the power of psychology and brain science to motivate people to do the stuff you want them to do even getting people to want to do the stuff you want them to do In this book you ll learn the 7 drives that motivate people The Desire For Mastery The Need To Belong The Power of Stories Carrots and Sticks Instincts Habits and Tricks Of The Mind For each of the 7 drives behavioral psychologist Dr Susan Weinschenk describes the research behind each drive and then offers specific strategies to use Here s just a few things you will learn The more choices people have the more regret they feel about the choice they pick If you want people to feel less regret then offer them fewer choices If you are going to use a reward give the reward continuously at first and then switch to giving a reward only sometimes If you want people to act independently then make a reference to money BUT if you want people to work with others or help others then make sure you DON T refer to money If you want people to remember something make sure it is at the beginning or end of your book presentation or meeting Things in the middle are more easily forgotten If you are using feedback to increase the desire for mastery keep the feedback objective and don t include praise

Creating Values in Life Ashok Gulla, 2010-04-27 Unfortunately very few people these days talk about real values in life What we stand for in life and are we living up to these values are worth pondering Are our aspirations in tune with the real purpose of life It is the values that remind us often what to aspire in life Most people value life and its achievements from the perspective of wealth and richness but do not recognize trust honesty and contentment as forward looking attributes that help in overall satisfaction Giving importance to external growth leaving behind inner development often leads to unbalance in life devoid of overall satisfaction Much of the troubles in this world are that true values of life have narrowed down skewed ignored and misunderstood This book deliberates different aspects of life in terms of personal moral spiritual family and social values and how these can enrich life and fill its purpose A wide range of topics include How to live an easier life Thoughts on simplifying life Virtues of Integrity Mistakes we generally make Control on impulsive mind Being Successful in life Benefits from silence Communication with inner self Creating love for others How to think positive How moral values get reinforced Belief in natural justice What is spirituality Understanding self How to find God What does death mean to us Good family values Being part of whole universe Universal brotherhood Towards developing good values Attempt has been made to describe large issues that are outcome of misdirected value system and how best a person can move ahead in life by focusing on core values The idea of writing this book is to facilitate readers to pause and think about what they aspire and are these aspirations in tandem with broad purpose in life

The Emotions of Protest James M. Jasper, 2018-05-24 In Donald Trump's America protesting has roared back into fashion The Women's March held the day after Trump's inauguration may have been the largest in American history and resonated around the world Between Trump's tweets and the march's popularity it is clear that displays of anger dominate American politics once again There is an extensive body of research on protest but the focus has mostly been on the calculating brain a byproduct of structuralism and cognitive studies and less on the feeling brain James M Jasper's work changes that as he pushes the boundaries of our present understanding of the social world In The Emotions of Protest Jasper lays out his argument showing that it is impossible to separate cognition and emotion At a minimum he says we cannot understand the Tea Party or Occupy Wall Street or pro and anti Trump rallies without first studying the fears and anger moral outrage and patterns of hate and love that their members feel This is a book centered on protest but Jasper also points toward broader paths of inquiry that have the power to transform the way social scientists picture social life and action Through emotions he says we are embedded in a variety of environmental bodily social moral and temporal contexts as we feel our way both consciously and unconsciously toward some things and away from others Politics and collective action have always been a kind of laboratory for working out models of human action more generally and emotions are no exception Both hearts and minds rely on the same feelings racing through our central nervous systems Protestors have emotions like everyone else but theirs are thinking hearts not bleeding hearts Brains can feel and hearts can think

Trust Masamichi Sasaki, Robert M. Marsh, 2012-03-02 Trust is a hypothesis about future behavior that is certain enough to serve as a basis for practical conduct Many contend that trust is one of society's integrative forces Identifying how entities trust is especially important work for social scientists

Cultures of Transparency Stefan Berger, Susanne Fengler, Dimitrij Owetschkin, Julia Sittmann, 2021-04-18 This volume addresses the major questions surrounding a concept that has become ubiquitous in the media and in civil society as well as in political and economic discourses in recent years and which is demanded with increasing frequency transparency How can society deal with increasing and often diverging demands and expectations of transparency What role can different political and civil society actors play in processes of producing or preventing transparency Where are the limits of transparency and how are these boundaries negotiated What is the relationship of transparency to processes of social change as well as systems of social surveillance and control Engaging with transparency as an interrelated product of law politics economics and culture this interdisciplinary volume explores the ambiguities and contradictions as well as the social and political dilemmas that the age of transparency has unleashed As such it will appeal to researchers across the social sciences and humanities with interests in politics history sociology civil
