Ed and Lisa Young pastors of Fellowship Church know the kind of grief that no one should have to suffer the death of a child. With deep vulnerability they tell the story of their family's journey through sorrow and anger to hope and healing after the tragic and sudden loss of their daughter. Having been through the worst they began to realize how many others were dealing with similar hurt, doubts and uncertainties and asking the same questions: How can I move through this period in my life? Can I restore my trust in God and see His presence in the midst of suffering? Is there a purpose to pain even if I can't see it yet? In A Path Through Pain the Youngs will offer you a language and a voice to speak about your pain and a way to see that you don't walk this path alone. They'll walk you through concrete ways that daily acts of faith can restore your hope in the faithfulness and power of Jesus Christ. God really does care for us and in the darkest of places His light still shines to show us a way through.

THE PEOPLE IN OUR PATH Richard Lynn Deemy, 2010-05-12 Do you realize how many people come across your path who directly affect your personality and development? Are you aware of how many people your life impacts? This book takes a look at the many possibilities of Divine Appointments in your life. Hopefully you will begin to realize that you are a very important part of God's plan for man. His main avenue of touching and changing people's lives is through other people. God has called you to be one such person. How well are you prepared to be an effective and positive influence on those people God puts in your path? This book will help you explore these opportunities and prepare you to be sensitive to these future God appointments.

Female Youth in Contemporary Egypt Dina Hosni, 2022-07-26 Based on interview material, observations and content analysis, this book captures the everyday life structures of a cohort of Muslim ex-Islamist female youth in Egypt who have joined or established new networks that share the common interest of doing good to the society based on their religious worldviews representing a broader societal movement. Female Youth in Contemporary Egypt posits that despite the fact that the 2011 Egyptian uprisings did not necessarily materialize with the political effects anticipated by some of its activists, it seems to have led to the formation of a new generation of active youth with a distinct worldview. Four broad and intertwined theoretical considerations have been taken into account. First, the book delineates the emergence and continuous development of post and sometimes non-bourgeois public spheres in Arabo-Islamic contexts and conceptualizes multiple publics of overlapping Islamic structures rather than one Islamic public. Second, it offers an empirical as well as a conceptual understanding of the positioning of religion as public/private. Third, it presents a critique of Islamist thought conducive to the rise of post-Islamism, and fourth, it offers a critique of feminist thought to throw light on novel forms of Muslim women's discourses and activism in line with post-Islamist worldviews. This book will be of interest to scholars in Middle Eastern Studies, women's studies and political studies.

Youth Ministry Strategies Michael Theisen, 2000-09-16 Sixty-five field-tested creative activities complement the Horizons core curriculum and minicourses. Ideas for community building activities and games, prayer experiences and rituals, liturgical celebrations and service projects center around six thematic sections. Engage your youth to make Christ's teachings relevant and fun.
