

Somerset Home Guard

David Lassman, Nigel Lassman

Somerset Home Guard:

The Somerset Home Guard Jeff Wilson, 2004 This is an extraordinarily detailed account of the Home Guard in Somerset which is the product of 20 years of exhaustive research Frome at War 1939-45 David Lassman, 2020-03-20 Frome at War 1939 1945 is a comprehensive account of this Somerset market town's experience of the conflict covering in detail life on the Home Front set against the background of the wider theatres of war The narrative of that global struggle is given with a focus on the ordeals endured by the people of Frome as they cheered their men and women fighters off to war welcomed hundreds of evacuated men women and children to the town and contributed their part to the fight against Hitler and the Nazi threat Rare insights into the life of the town are included along with seldom told stories from the footnotes of history from Frome's part within the secret underground resistance movement and the national fight for women's equality to the gradual influx of American GIs and Field Marshall Montgomery's stay in the aftermath of Dunkirk The book incorporates memoirs and memories along with in depth research from official records and newspaper accounts which allow the reader to see the war not only from ordinary people's perspective but the military experiences of Frome's heroic men and women and in many cases their tragic sacrifices as well More controversial aspects are also touched on including injustice espionage racism and politics to give a full and fascinating picture of a town facing profound trials of endurance and courage but at the same time revealing the characteristics that have sustained Frome throughout its illustrious and turbulent history

Somerset's Military Heritage Andrew Powell-Thomas, 2018-04-15 This book will be of interest to all those who would like to know more about Somerset's remarkable military history Tracing Your Second World War Ancestors Phil Tomaselli, 2011-12-13 The Second World War was the defining conflict of the twentieth century and it is one of the most popular and fascinating areas for historical research and for family historians More records than ever are available to researchers whose relatives served during the war And this new book by Phil Tomaselli is the perfect guide to how to locate and understand these sources and get the most out of them He explains how and from where service records can be obtained using real examples showing what they look like and how to interpret them He also examines records of the military units relatives might have served in so their careers can be followed in graphic detail The three armed services are covered along with the merchant navy the Home Guard civilian services prisoners of war gallantry and campaign medals casualties women's services and obscure wartime organizations Also included are a glossary of service acronyms information on useful websites an introduction to the National Archives and details of other useful sources Diary of Zeke Evans Barboursville Home Guard Ray Adkins, 2008-03-22 The story of Zeke Evans a Union Home Guard who was involved in the Battle of Barboursville Kentucky on September 19 1861 Read what he thought about the event and what he saw and felt being out numbered as they made their stand Defending Gloucestershire and Bristol Mike Osborne, 2024-06-03 Gloucestershire's strategic location straddling the Severn is reinforced by Bristol's importance as a port The Forest of Dean and the Cotswolds are densely populated by prehistoric hillforts and Gloucester Cirencester and Winchcombe were important throughout the Roman and Anglo Saxon periods The Normans built substantial castles at Bristol Gloucester and Berkeley scene of Edward II s murder with many more of earth and timber Many figured in the conflicts between rival factions culminating in the Battle of Tewkesbury In the Civil War Bristol underwent two sieges and Gloucester another and one of the last battles at Stow followed continuous skirmishing The next centuries saw volunteer forces established formalised by the State by the end of Victoria s reign to counter threats external and internal A nascent aircraft industry would develop into aircraft factories and airfields in the First World War with further development of training and aircraft storage facilities for the newly formed RAF during the inter War period Anti invasion defences were constructed in the Second World War but the primary effort was in logistics bases for arriving US troops RAF and USAAF training airfields and depots and communications facilities This last aspect along with intelligence gathering continued into the Cold War and beyond

Journal Royal United Service Institution (Great Britain),1945 Special Bibliographic Series US Army Military History Research Collection,1978 A Band of Brothers Daniel D. Hartzler,2013-03-01 For some in the Baltimore and Frederick militia companies the hostilities began when they went to Harpers Ferry to put down the John Brown insurrection There were some Maryland volunteers and more than 500 enlisted men known as the Baltimore Secessionists in Charleston Harbor when the first blow was struck Men of Maryland descent were scattered throughout the Confederacy and scarcely was there a company that did not contain Maryland blood These Maryland brothers were linked in their willingness to sacrifice all in the cause for liberty as they believed it to be There was not a historic family that was not represented in the Maryland Line Included in this work are well known Marylanders like Richard Snowden Andrews Bradley T Johnson Harry Gilmore Arnold Elzey George H Steuart Jr Williams Worthington Goldsborough and James R Herbert but their unknown brethren are remembered here as well This volume is a supplement to Marylanders in the Confederacy as seen through the eyes of the camera For the complete story of Maryland s true sons who served in the Confederacy these two volumes should be referred to simultaneously Every Maryland boy had many thrilling tales from adventures in running the blockade to achievements in battle This volume attempts to shed light on some of these exciting tales by using brief biographies and vintage photographs Bath at War, 1939-45 David Lassman,Nigel Lassman,2018-11-30 Bath at War 1939 45 is a comprehensive account of the citys experience of the conflict covering in detail life on the Home Front set against the background of the wider theatres of war The narrative of that global struggle is given with a focus on the ordeals endured by the people of Bath as they cheered their men and women fighters off to war welcomed thousands of evacuated men women and children to the city and faced the full might of Hitlers Luftwaffe Rare insights into the life of the war torn city are included along with untold stories from the footnotes of history from the Bath blitz to the influx of American GIs The book incorporates memoirs and memories along with in depth research from official records and newspaper accounts so the reader sees the war from the perspective of ordinary people although the military experiences of Baths citizens and in many cases their tragic sacrifices are also included More controversial topics are also touched upon such as civil defense military injustice racism and local politics to give a full and fascinating picture of a great city facing profound trials of endurance and courage thus revealing the many characteristics which has sustained Bath throughout its illustrious history
