

Welcome to the whimsical world of acclaimed children's writer ROBERT MUNSCH! In this delightfully animated video series, children and parents can share the enchantingly unconventional stories that have made Mr. Munsch an international storytelling favorite!

While shopping with her father at a giant supermarket, a little girl named Tyya is deeply disappointed to find that her dad isn't buying any "good food" - like ice cream, or cookies, or chocolate bars, or ginger ale. Before you know it, Tyya is off on a shopping spree of her own, with deliciously comical results!

Plus MORTIMER

Late one night, a little fellow named Mortimer found himself put to bed with instruction from his mother to "Be quiet!" Mortimer, however, had other ideas - and he began singing a catchy, noisy little song that soon had his mother and his father, his sisters, his brothers and the police very wide awake!

Animation adapted from illustrations by Michael Martchenko, whose visual humor takes its inspiration from his childhood passion - watching cartoons. Since 1980, Martchenko's zany imagination has proven to be a perfect match for stories by Robert Munsch.
