Sondok Princess Of The Moon And Stars:

Sondok Sheri Holman,2000 Söndök, Princess of the Moon and Stars Sheri Holman,2002 THE ROYAL DIARIES is pleased to introduce historical novelist Sheri Holman who makes her debut on the list with a captivating story of fourteen year old Princess Sondok from seventh century Korea During the seventh century the land which is now Korea was fraught with political and religious intrigue The country was split into Three Kingdoms each fighting for supremacy Silla Koguryo and Paekche Besides the warring kingdoms there are three religions in conflict Shamanism the ancient female dominated faith wherein Shamanist priestesses wield great power at court foretelling the future performing important national rituals and healing sickness Buddhism the contemplative State religion and Confucianism a recent import from powerful China

Jahanara, Princess of Princesses Kathryn Lasky,2002 Written by a Newbery Honor winning author this is the story of a princess who longs for freedom Jahanara is the daughter of a rich emperor in India While she is showered with many riches she is also confined by her strict religion and the rules of the palace Zen Women Grace Schireson,2009-10-27 This landmark presentation at last makes heard the centuries of Zen s female voices Through exploring the teachings and history of Zen s female ancestors from the time of the Buddha to ancient and modern female masters in China Korea and Japan Grace Schireson offers us a view of a more balanced Dharma practice one that is especially applicable to our complex lives embedded as they are in webs of family relations and responsibilities and the challenges of love and work Part I of this book describes female practitioners as they are portrayed in the classic literature of Patriarchs Zen often as tea ladies bit players in the drama of male students enlightenments as iron maidens tough as nails women always jousting with their male counterparts or women who themselves become macho masters teaching the same Patriarchs Zen as the men do Part II of this book presents a different view a view of how women Zen masters entered Zen practice and how they embodied and taught Zen uniquely as women This section examines many urgent and illuminating questions about our Zen grandmothers How did it affect them to be taught by men What did they feel as they trying to fit into this male practice environment and how did their Zen training help them with their feelings How did their lives and relationships differ from that of their male teachers How did they express the Dharma in their own way for other female students How was their teaching consistently different from that of male ancestors And then part III explores how women s practice provides flexible and pragmatic solutions to issues arising in contemporary Western Zen centers Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon

Kane,2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history
