Song For A Shadow:

Songs of Degrees John Taggart, 1994 Songs of Degrees brings together 19 related essays on contemporary American poetry and poetics published as journal articles between 1975 and 1989 by poet and theorist John Taggart Over the past two decades Taggart has been a significant intellectual and artistic force for a number of major American poets By focusing on the work of several major and less well known American experimental poets from the 1930s to the present Taggart not only traces the origins and evolution of this experimental tendency in recent poetry but also develops new theoretical tools for reading and appreciating these innovative and complex works The essays are written from the engaged perspective of an active poet for other poets as well as for those who would like to read and think about poetry in a participatory fashion The essays thus present inside narratives of some of the most challenging contemporary American poetry The range of Songs of Degrees extends from the Black Mountain poets Charles Olson and Robert Duncan to such language poets as Bruce Andrews and Susan Howe Taggart closely examines the work of the objectivist poets George Oppen and Louis Zukofsky Three essays are devoted to each of these poets providing detailed readings of individual poems and considerations of each poet's overall achievement Taggart also concentrates on poets whose work has not been widely recognized or is only now beginning to be recognized These include Theodore Enslin Frank Samperi and William Bronk Taggart's essay Reading William Bronk is the first extensive reading of this relatively unknown but truly outstanding poet Taggart's essays also focus on his own poetry He describes the composition process and the thinking behind it as well as the poet's own evolving sense of what the poem can and ought to be These very personal reflections are unique in their attention to current questions concerning form and the issue of spiritual vision Avoiding political and cultural reductionism Taggart throughout keeps his eye and heart on the poetic singing his own Songs of Degrees even as he discovers notes of the same music in the works of other

An American Anthology, 1787-1900 Edmund Clarence Stedman, 1901 Songs of Gladness for the Sabbath School John Edgar Gould, 1869 The Forgotten Songs of the Newfoundland Outports Anna Kearney Guigné, 2016-12-12 In 1951 musician Kenneth Peacock 1922-2000 secured a contract from the National Museum of Canada today the Canadian Museum of History to collect folksongs in Newfoundland As the province had recently joined Confederation the project was deemed a goodwill gesture while at the same time adding to the Museum's meager Anglophone archival collections Between 1951 and 1961 over the course of six field visits Peacock collected 766 songs and melodies from 118 singers in 38 communities later publishing two thirds of this material in a three volume collection Songs of the Newfoundland Outports 1965 As the publication consists of over 1000 pages Outports is considered to be a bible for Newfoundland singers and a valuable resource for researchers However Peacock's treatment of the material by way of tune text collations use of lines and stanzas from unpublished songs has always been somewhat controversial Additionally comparison of the field collection with Outports indicates that although Peacock acquired a range of material his personal preferences frequently guided his publishing agenda To ensure that the songs closely correspond to what the singers presented to Peacock the collection has been prepared by drawing on Peacock's original music and textual notes and his original field recordings The collection is far ranging and eclectic in that it includes British and American broadsides musical hall and vaudeville material alongside country and western songs and local compositions It also highlights the influence of popular media on the Newfoundland song tradition and contextualizes a number of locally composed songs In this sense it provides a key link between what Peacock actually recorded and the material he eventually published As several of the songs have not previously appeared in the standard Newfoundland collections The Forgotten Songs sheds new light on the extent of Peacock's collecting The collection includes 125 songs arranged under 113 titles along with extensive notes on the songs and brief biographies of the 58 singers Thanks to the Research Centre for the Study of Music Media and Place a video of the launch event held in St John's Newfoundland is available at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ghj6E6QiLI> t 21s Published in English The best song book in the world, ed. by E.W.
