Compton,2014-04-30 This collection highlights and extends contemporary women s and gender studies by presenting theoretical analyses and innovative research conceptualizations applications and methodologies via a diverse variety of popular in the classroom topics such as changing masculinities comedic dramatic portrayals of ethnicity and discrimination stigma and differences within mainstream media gender stereotypes intersections of gendered and sexual identities in social media and fundamental institutions These topics emphasize relevant issues and nuances within popular culture identities and perceptions and social problems and illustrate the breadth of gender studies and its applications while the diverse methodologies like historical comparisons ethnographic demographic and statistical analyses demonstrate its epistemology Each chapter remains solidly founded in gender theory while making significant innovative contributions to the overall field

In Other Words: Literature by Latinas of the United States Roberta Fernàndez,1994-01-01 Roberta Fern ndez has gathered the best and most representative examples of fiction poetry drama and essay currently being written by Latina writers of the United States The work is arranged by genre and topics are as varied as the voices and styles of the writers the challenge of living in two cultures experiencing marginality as a result of class ethnicity and or gender Latina feminism the celebration of one s culture and its people Most of the pieces are in English and some are presented bilingually in English and Spanish A preface and an introduction by the editor and a foreword by the noted critic of Latin American literature Jean Franco serve to contextualize the writers and their work a primary and secondary bibliography serves as an appendix meXicana Encounters Rosa Linda Fregoso,2003-12-04 meXicana Encounters charts the dynamic and contradictory representation of Mexicanas and Chicanas in culture Rosa Linda Fregoso's deft analysis of the cultural practices and symbolic forms that shape social identities takes her across a wide and varied terrain Among the subjects she considers are the recent murders and disappearances of women in Ciudad Ju rez transborder feminist texts that deal with private domestic forms of violence how films like John Sayles's Lone Star re-center white masculinity and the significance of la familia to the identity of Chicanas/os and how it can subordinate gender and sexuality to masculinity and heterosexual roles Fregoso's self-reflexive approach to cultural politics embraces the movement for social justice and offers new insights into the ways that racial and gender differences are inscribed in cultural practices This River Here Carmen Tafolla, 2014-07-01 San Antonio poet laureate Carmen Tafolla captures her hometown the city of her ancestors for the past three centuries in poems that celebrate its history as a cosmopolitan multilingual cultural crossroads Discover San Antonio's corazon in Tafolla's poetry accompanied by historic and contemporary photographs that convey its enduring sense of place A century ago San Antonio gave Oscar Wilde a thrill of strange pleasure J Frank Dobie claimed that every Texan has two hometowns his own and San Antonio and Will Rogers declared it to be one of the three unique cities of America To Larry McMurtry San Antonio has kept an ambiance that all the rest of our cities lack Carmen Tafolla calls forth the soul of this place the holy home of the waters called Yanaguana by los indios and celebrates the many cultures that have made of it un rebozo bordado de culturas y colores Communal Feminisms Gabriella Gutierrez y Muhs, 2009-12-01 Communal Feminisms explores identity and exile from three different perspectives theory interviews and imaginative literature The first part of this book describes and defines exile within identity the second part delivers ten interviews and examines the socio-historical construction of exile through feminine Chicano literature and Chilean literature created and circulated during the Pinochet regime and the third part contains a collection of unpublished original works from each author interviewed Including the interviews and creative works in both English and Spanish Dr Gabriella Gutierrez y Muhs emphasizes the need to publish bilingual works without alienating English readers This uniquely crafted collection will appeal to scholars across disciplines Indivisible Poems for Social Justice Gail Bush, Randy Meyer, 2013-01-01 An anthology including over 50 works of poetry by 20th century writers on issues related to social justice America is not easy Its a land of high ideals and stirring icons but it is also a land of harsh realities We celebrate the incredible achievements of individuals as we turn our gaze from hunger and homelessness in the streets We have a difficult time matching our words with our deeds This is where poetry comes in A poem has the ability to personalize the ideal to make it tangible in a way that a speech or news report cannot It can widen the angle through which we view society It can move us to action The poems in this anthology do just that confront challenge and inspire They take us on a journey toward social justice starting in the shadows and slowly working our way home The Foreword is written by COMMON who is a hip hop artist actor and social activist He is also the founder of the Common Ground Foundation Gail Bush is a prominent professor emeritus of education and library science Randy Meyer is a middle school librarian and has worked as an editor and writer in the library and educational journal and book publishing fields Latino Boom John S. Christie, José B.
