Soul Mountain:

Zhuangzi and Modern Chinese Literature Jianmei Liu, 2016 This is a powerful account of how the ruin and resurrection of Zhuangzi in modern China's literary history correspond to the rise and fall of modern Chinese individuality. By examining the twentieth-century reinterpretation and appropriation of Zhuangzi, the author explores modern Chinese writers' complicated relationship with tradition.

Soul Mountain Gao Xingjian, 2000-12-05 In 1983 Chinese playwright, critic, fiction writer, and painter Gao Xingjian pronounced gou shing jen was diagnosed with lung cancer and faced imminent death. But six weeks later, a second examination revealed there was no cancer; he had won a reprieve from death and had been thrown back into the world of the living. Faced with a repressive cultural environment and the threat of a spell in a prison farm, Gao fled Beijing. He traveled to the remote mountains and ancient forests of Sichuan in southwest China and from there back to the east coast, a journey of fifteen thousand kilometers over a period of five months. The results of this epic voyage of discovery is Soul Mountain. A bold, lyrical, prodigious novel, Soul Mountain probes the human soul with an uncommon directness and candor. Interwoven with the myriad of stories and countless memorable characters from venerable Daoist masters and Buddhist nuns to mythical Wild Men, deadly Qichun snakes, and farting buses is the narrator's poignant inner journey and search for freedom. Fleeing the social conformity required by the Communist government, he wanders deep into the regions of the Qiang, Miao, and Yi peoples located on the fringes of Han Chinese civilization and discovers a plethora of different traditions, history, legends, folk songs, and landscapes. Slowly, with the help of memory, imagination, and sensory experience, he reconstructs his personal past. He laments the impact of the Cultural Revolution on the ecology, both human and physical, of China. And in a polyphony of narrating selves, the narrator's I spawns a you, a she, and a he, each with a distinct perspective and voice. The novel delights in the freedom of the imagination to expand the notion of the individual self. Storytelling saves the narrator from a deep loneliness that is part of the human condition. His search for meaning in life in the journey turns up the possibility that there may be no meaning. The elusive Lingshan, Soul Mountain, which becomes the object of his quest, never yields up its secrets, but the journey is a rich, strange, provocative, and rewarding one. Soul Mountain is a novel of immense wisdom and profound beauty.

Saint Emperor of Soul and Martial Land Yan KongKong, 2020-05-29 In the Soul Martial Continent, the soul beasts were revered. The strength of a soul beast often determined a person's future, a person's life, and death. The weak were mediocre people who were bullied. When the strong were angered, blood would flow like rivers.

Ink Dances in Limbo Jessica Yeung, 2008-07-01 In this pioneering study of the entire written works of Gao Xingjian China's first winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature Jessica Yeung analyses each group of his writing and argues for a reading of Gao's writing as a phenomenon of cultural translation his adoption of Modernism in the 1980s is a translation of the European literary paradigm and his attempt at postmodernist writing in the 1990s and 2000s is the effect of an exilic nihilism expressive of a diasporic subjectivity struggling to translate himself into his host culture Thus Dr Yeung looks at Gao's works from a double perspective in terms of their relevance both to China and to the West Avoiding the common polarized approaches to Gao's works her dual approach means that she neither extolls them as the most brilliant works of contemporary Chinese literature eligible for elevation to the metaphysical level nor dismisses them as nothing more than elitist and misogynist mediocre writings rather she sees this important body of work in a more nuanced way This book is suitable for all readers who are interested in contemporary Chinese culture and literature It is particularly valuable to students who are keen to engage with the issue of contemporary China West cultural relationships

Religion Ou Guang-an,David Jasper,2022-07-28 How does one culture read another In Literature and Religion two scholars one from China and one from the West each read texts from the other s culture as a means of dialogue A key issue in such an enterprise is the nature of religion and what we understand by that term in a world in which ancient religious customs seem to be dying or under threat Does a comparative study of religious literature offer a way towards mutual understanding or merely illustrate our differences Underpinned by their own friendship these two partners in conversation show what is possible Polyphony Embodied - Freedom and Fate in Gao Xingjian's Writings Michael Lackner,Nikola

Chardonnens,2014-07-28 Like artists important writers defy unequivocal interpretations Gao Xingjian winner of the Nobel Prize in literature is a cosmopolitan writer deeply rooted in the Chinese past while influenced by paragons of Western Modernity The present volume is less interested in a general discussion on the multitude of aspects in Gao s works and even less in controversies concerning their aesthetic value than in obtaining a response to the crucial issues of freedom and fate from a clearly defined angle The very nature of the answer to the question of freedom and fate within Gao Xingjian s works can be called a polyphonic one there are affirmative as well as skeptical voices But polyphony as embodied by Gao is an even more multifaceted phenomenon Most important for our contention is the fact that Gao Xingjian s aesthetic experience embodies prose theater painting and film Taken together they form a Gesamtkunstwerk whose diversity of voices characterizes every single one of them THE ORIGINAL LORD CHAPTER 49 Trinh The Vien ,2025-08-15 THE

Pilgrimage in Tibet Alex McKay,2013-12-16 The Western image of Tibet as a sacred land is in many ways a mythical construction But the Tibetans themselves have traditionally mapped out their land in terms of areas of sacred space and pilgrimage ensuring a high degree of mobility within all classes of Tibetan society Pilgrims travelled to local regional and national centres throughout recorded Tibetan history In recent years pilgrimage has resumed in areas where it had been forbidden by the Chinese authorities and has now become one of the most prominent religious expressions of Tibetan national identity In this major new work leading scholars of Asian pilgrimage traditions discuss historical and contemporary aspects of pilgrimage within the Tibetan cultural world Myths and legends material conditions textual sources a modern pilgrim s impressions political and economic influences biographies and contemporary developments all these and many other issues are examined here The result is an informative and often entertaining work which contributes greatly to our knowledge of the history and culture of Tibet as well as the wider issues of religious power and practice
