Eidner,2011-11-04 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject American Studies Literature grade bestanden University of Leipzig Institut f r Amerikanistik course The 19th century in American female fiction language English abstract enforcements and become an independent human being In which way she tries to free herself from the entrapment called marriage which developments her way to her personal liberty goes through and if she eventually succeeds will be discussed in this term paper In the first part of this term paper I want to report briefly about the second half of the nineteenth century in America and the role of women especially female writers Afterward there will be a short look at the author s vita because the way Wharton lived tells us much about her understanding of different themes Then I want to analyze Wharton s short story Souls Belated which contains a lot of themes and symbols from which the most interesting will be described and interpreted In a final conclusion I will try find an answer to the essential topic of Wharton s story Does the protagonist succeed in escaping the social conventions due to her divorce or does she fail And is it possible at all to free oneself of the social imprisonment of the time described particularly as a woman This term paper focuses on the thesis that Souls Belated is mirroring the social conditions of Edith Wharton s 19th century New York Society and the institution of marriage as a kind of cage for women

The Portable Edith Wharton Edith Wharton,2003 This unique collection is a rich representation of the works of one of the greatest 20th century American writers best known for her novels depicting the stifling conformity and ceremoniousness of the upper class New York society into which she was born

Apart from Modernism Robin Peel,2005 The study emphasizes the crucial role that Wharton s contact with Europe had on her writing and the significance intellectually and politically of her relationship with Morton Fullerton and her reading of his books on politics It locates Wharton in her period surrounded as she was by discourses which called for political and social change change which an outlook that Peel calls American Toryism made her reluctant to embrace Her love of motorcars and her excitement about other technological developments such as aeroplanes was inspired by a feeling of exclusivity and not the democratization of culture which she feared and condemned France England Italy and America formed the quartet of countries that contained the best and worst of culture and Peel emphasizes how ironical it was that a writer whose ideological beliefs endorsed the importance of home roots and tradition should have spent so much of her life as a restless apparently rootless traveler
